Honorable C. E. Artell
City Manager
Kenosha, Wisconsin

My dear Mr. Artell:

I was pleased to receive the application submitted by you nominating Chief of Police Stanley G. Harkedahl of the Kenosha Police Department to attend the FBI National Academy. It is not possible to advise you at this time just how long it will be before your application will come up for final consideration.

As soon as it becomes possible for this Bureau to give consideration to your application, an appropriate investigation will be conducted of the representative nominated by you and if he is found acceptable you will be advised in due course and in ample time to make preparations for his attendance.

Please accept my thanks for your interest in the Academy.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Enclosed please find application to attend the FBI National Academy. The application is signed by our City Manager who feels I should be the one to attend.

I became Chief in Kenosha but two and one-half years ago. Consequently, my tenure with the Department will be about as long as any of our officers. Therefore, it is thought the Department will benefit most by my attending the Academy.

We recently lost, through retirement, Lieutenant Eugene Zicarella who was our only Academy graduate. We are therefore greatly in need of a replacement.

I know that the requests for enrollment in the Academy must be tremendous. However, it would be greatly appreciated if I am an acceptable candidate to be able to attend an early school. I am selfishly very desirous of attending, and actually the need of our Department is present.

Hoping you will decide favorably in this matter, and pledging our continued cooperation to you and members of the F.B.I., I remain

Very truly yours,

Stanley G. Haukedahl

TO ATTENDFBI NATIONAL ACADEMY

DIRECTOR

Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.Kenosha, Wis.
October 2, 1950

Dear Sir:

I do hereby make application to nominate a representative of this law enforcement agency to attend a session of the FBI National Academy in Washington.

I realize that a primary purpose of this course of training is to train police instructors so that upon completion of the course offered by the FBI National Academy, the graduate may return and instruct the remaining members of his organization. It will be my purpose, if a representative from this agency is accepted, to authorize, aid, and assist him in conducting such a training school.

I do hereby nominate for your consideration to attend a session of the Academy:

Stanley George Haukedahl
(Name)Chief of Police
(Title or Rank)

I request that you make appropriate investigation into the qualifications, character, reputation, standing in the community, and physical ability of this officer. There is attached hereto a Personal History Record of the officer nominated. It is my understanding that this is merely a nomination of the representative for your approval in the event your investigation determines that he is qualified.

INSTRUCTIONS

The form letter on the reverse side is considered an application for the purpose of nominating a representative to attend the FBI National Academy. The officer nominated must be a regular, full-time employee of a law enforcement agency of a municipality, county, or state. The nominee must be less than fifty-one years of age; capable of performing vigorous physical activity; an American citizen; and of good character, reputation and standing in the community. This application should be signed by a Commissioner, Superintendent or Chief of Police; or by a Sheriff or head of a county police agency; or by the Chief, Superintendent, or executive officer of a state police or highway patrol organization; or the application may be filed by an officer of the state, county, or municipality of higher rank than those mentioned, such as Mayor, City Manager, Chairman of the County or City Commission, or Governor.

This application should be accompanied by the attached Personal History Record properly filled out furnishing the personal and official history of the officer nominated. The Chief of Police, Sheriff, or Superintendent of a state police organization may nominate himself to take this course of training if he so desires.

As soon as possible after this application is received, an investigation of the officer nominated will be made and upon its being determined that he is acceptable, the official signing this application will be so advised:

The course will continue for twelve weeks, the final two weeks of which will be devoted to Specialized Training in Selected Subjects. Such training will be afforded in the following subjects:-

- Police Administration and Organization
- How to Set up a Police Laboratory
- Police Records, Statistics and Report Writing
- Fingerprint Identification
- Juvenile Control
- Investigative Methods and Techniques
- Firearms Training
- Police Photography
- Traffic

Please indicate below what subjects you desire your representative to study.

My dear Chief:

Your letter of September 2, 1952, with which you enclosed an application for your attendance at the FBI National Academy has been received.

I have noted that you are desirous of attending the spring session of 1953 and although I am unable to inform you at this time whether it will be possible to permit your attendance at that session, you may be assured that every possible consideration will be given to your earliest attendance at the Academy.

I appreciate your desire to attend the National Academy particularly in view of the fact that there are no graduates of the Academy with the Kenosha Police Department at this time.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

Please accept our thanks for your kind letter of August 21, 1952, and find enclosed my application to attend the F.B.I. National Academy.

The Academy plays a very important roll in the national enforcement picture. We recognize the need for an Academy trained officer on our department. We have been without one since the retirement of Lt. Zicarelli over two years ago. Consequently, if my application is in order and accepted, I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to attend the spring class in '53.

Thanking you for your continued cooperation and helpfulness, and pledging ours at all times, I remain, Chief HAUKE DAHL has advised me that he has submitted his application for admittance to the 51st Session of the FBI National Academy to be held in March, 1953.

Chief HAUKE DAHL is highly regarded by the members of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association, and has cooperated to the fullest degree with the Milwaukee Office. He has also been very enthusiastic about police training, having on numerous occasions requested this office to make personnel available in connection with police training programs in his department.

He has prepared an excellent lecture on "Intoxication Testing Procedures", with particular reference to the use of the drunkometer in connection with drunk driving investigations. His lecture on this subject has been so well received, invitations to give it to numerous other departments have been extended and accepted by Chief HAUKE DAHL.

I recommend that favorable action be given the application of Chief HAUKE DAHL for admission to the 51st Session of the National Academy.

51st SESSIONStanley G. Haukedahl

Re Director's letter to Milwaukee dated 12/22/52.

At Madison, Wisconsin

[redacted]
at Central High School, checked her records and advised that STANLEY GEORGE HAUKEDAH, born 6/24/13 and residing at 931 Lake Court, Madison had graduated 48th in a class of 141 in 6/31. [redacted] said that the applicant had been an outstanding athlete and a very likeable and popular student who was highly regarded on the basis of character, personality, and reliability while in high school. [redacted]

[redacted] added that his son, ROBERT EUGENE HAUKEDAH, had recently graduated from Central where he also had been considered a fine young man. She said that ROBERT was the offspring of an early and unfortunate marriage of the applicant's which ended in divorce, and she understood that ROBERT had been brought up by older relatives in Madison. She did not know the name of ROBERT'S mother.

EXPEDITE PROCESSING

Page 214, Volume 50 of the Circuit Court records in Madison on the paternity case involving STANLEY HAUKEDAH and ELEANOR L. SHERMAN, showed that a son ROBERT EUGENE, had been born to MISS SHERMAN on 8/26/32 and that the applicant had admitted paternity before Judge AUGUST O. HOPPMAN of the Circuit Court at a hearing on 10/4/32. MISS SHERMAN was then 18 years of age, and the applicant 19 years of age. The applicant paid $200 lying-in expenses and was ordered to pay $76.50 as a balance of medical expenses due; and $10 per month for the support of the child until the child reached the age of 16. MISS MYRTLE HANSON, Clerk of the Circuit Court, said that the applicant paid in full and had been discharged of all obligation when ROBERT EUGENE became 16.

paternity suit mentioned above showed that ELEANOR SHERMAN and STANLEY HAUKE DAHL, both graduates of Central High School, Madison, apparently came from good families, and that no criminal charges were ever brought in connection with this case. ELEANOR refused to give her child out for adoption despite the desires of her parents in this connection, and the Child Welfare Section maintained contact with her until she married HARRY OLSON in Madison on 1/23/37, after which no more was heard from her. [redacted] said that, presumably, MRS. and MR. OLSON took care of ROBERT EUGENE thereafter. STANLEY HAUKE DAHL was listed as having married HELEN LANDIS on 3/2/35 at Rockford, Ill.

The records of the Registrar's Office at the Univ. of Wis. showed that the applicant attended the Univ. during the school year 1931-32, summer session 1932, first semester 1933-34, summer session 1934, first semester 1934-35, and the school year 1936-37. The gaps were caused by "illness" and poor grades, and he was finally dropped in 6/37 because of poor grades.

[redacted] advised that the applicant had been an outstanding football player at Central High, and had been a member of the Univ. squad for the first two or three years of his attendance, but had finally flunked out of the Univ.

b7D

[redacted] and expressed the opinion that all of the HAUKE DAHLS appeared to have good reputations in Madison.

Detective WILLIAM TAYLOR, Madison PD said that he attended high school with the applicant and had known him and his family, which includes a brother, OREL, and a sister, FAY, very well ever since. TAYLOR said that the HAUKE DAHL family home has always been 931 Lake Court where the parents, MR. and MRS. LOUIS HAUKE DAHL still reside. He described the HAUKE DAHLS as very fine people of excellent character and reputation, and he said that the applicant had established an excellent record as a traffic officer for Dane County and later for the state in and around Madison. While in high school, the applicant was said to have been a very good athlete and very well liked. It was TAYLOR'S opinion, however, that the applicant was somewhat spoiled by the father LOUIS HAUKE DAHL, who was very indulgent towards his son. This indulgence was believed to be one of the causes of the applicant's poor record at the Univ., since TAYLOR believed the applicant to be possessed of sufficient ability to graduate college had he tried hard. Another factor which upset the applicant's college years was the trouble in which he became involved when ELEANOR SHERMAN, a member of his high school class, became pregnant and charged him as the father. Detective TAYLOR said that the applicant's mistake was the result of a youthful indiscretion and he did not believe that the incident reflected on the applicant's basic moral character, particularly in view of the honesty which the applicant showed in admitting paternity and discharging the financial obligations arising therefrom. TAYLOR understood that both parties married successfully later and that the child, who took the name HAUKE DAHL, grew up well with his mother, but, according to TAYLOR, the resultant strain of earning the necessary funds in the hard times of the early 1930s was in part responsible for the applicant's failure in college. Since his entry into law enforcement as a county traffic officer in 1938, and particularly in connection with his current activities as Chief of Police in Kenosha, the applicant was said to have established himself firmly as an outstanding officer of excellent character, complete honesty, and superior ability.

The files of Local Board #13, Madison, listed ROBERT EUGENE HAUKE DAHL, born 8/26/32, as currently a student at Wartburg College, Waverly, Ia. His Madison residence was listed as in care of his uncle, GEORGE NELSON of 19 N. Hancock St., and he was rejected for military service because of poor vision.

MR. EDWIN M. WILKIE, Madison Attorney, former district attorney, special prosecutor for the Governor in a recent investigation into gambling and corruption in Kenosha County and one of the leading contenders for the position of U. S. Attorney for the Western District of Wis., gave the following information when interviewed. MR. WILKIE, who was listed as a reference by the applicant, said that he had known the applicant since high school days, and felt that the incident involving paternity of an illegitimate child should not be held against the applicant to any appreciable degree because of the applicant's youth at the time and because of the honest and responsible manner in which the applicant had admitted his mistake and had discharged the legal financial responsibilities arising from it. MR. WILKIE added that he knew the applicant to have established a good record as a county and state traffic officer and during the past two years of prosecutive activity in Kenosha County he realized that the applicant had done a very fine job, under adverse circumstances, as Police Chief at Kenosha. During the investigation in Kenosha County, which resulted in state prison sentences for two individuals, including the incumbent Sheriff, and fines for others found guilty, the applicant was described as having rendered great assistance to MR. WILKIE, sometimes at considerable risk to himself, in uncovering and correcting gambling and corruption in Kenosha County, including the city of Kenosha. The applicant was said to have been appointed by a narrow 3-2 vote of the Police Commission as an honest Chief, and to have faced a great deal of opposition, including outright attempts at bribery, during the years he has held office. However, MR. WILKIE felt that, as a result of the convictions mentioned above, and the ouster of corrupt officials in recent elections, the Kenosha situation is now in comparatively good shape, and the applicant is firmly established as Chief of Police. MR. WILKIE went on to say that there still exists a minority element in Kenosha, many of whom are superficially respectable people who benefited secretly from gambling and corruption, which element is still bitterly opposed to the applicant. MR. WILKIE had heard that the applicant was considering applying for National Academy and MR. WILKIE said that he felt it would be a great help to the morale of the law-abiding elements now in control in Kenosha and a great setback to the minority element mentioned above, if the FBI should see fit to encourage honest law enforcement in Kenosha by accepting Chief HAUKE DAHL as a National Academy applicant.

The following individuals, all of whom knew of the applicant's illegitimate child, expressed the opinion that the applicant is a man of excellent character and an outstanding law enforcement officer who would make a sound applicant for the National Academy. Those who knew him in his youth expressed the opinion that the paternity case was the result of youth and immaturity rather than an indication of any immoral tendencies, even at that time. Those who did not know him at that time, characterized the incident as apparently a mistake of youth which the applicant has rectified by sound performance in his maturity:

EDWARD FISCHER, Sheriff of Dane County (Madison)
1938-42.

JOHN ARNOLD, retired Captain, Madison PD, Sheriff of Dane County 1942-46, and investigator on special prosecutor WILKIE'S staff in Kenosha 1950-52.

[redacted] Deputy, Dane County Sheriff's Office.

BRUCE WEATHERLY (NA), Chief of Police, Madison.

[redacted] Captain, Madison PD.

MELVIN LARSON, Commissioner, State Motor Vehicle Dept.

[redacted] State Highway Patrolman, State Motor Vehicle Dept.

The following individuals, none of whom indicated any knowledge of the applicant's illegitimate child, recommended the applicant highly on the basis of character, reputation, personality, ability, and family background.

MRS. ELFRIDIA TAEUBER, 1729 Porter Ave., employed by State Welfare Dept. For 25 years prior to 1951 MR. TAEUBER was a next-door neighbor of the HAUKE DAHL family.

[redacted] Bowman Dairy Co., where the applicant worked from about 1934 to about 1939, according to the Dairy's incomplete records.

[redacted] Bowman Dairy Co.

[redacted] Kennedy Dairy Co., where the applicant worked part-time from 1931 to 1934, according to the Dairy's incomplete records.

At Kenosha, Wisconsin

The following individuals who have been or are presently neighbors of the applicant, all stated that the applicant and his wife and four children, living in the family home at 526 71st St., are all persons well thought of in the neighborhood, desirable neighbors and that the applicant is a person of above average ability and appearance and of very good character and reputation. None of these neighbors was able to recall any information of a derogatory nature relative to the applicant:

[redacted] Superintendent of Mails, Kenosha Post Office.

K. T. SAUAGE, 523 72nd St., farmer, Kenosha County District Attorney.

[redacted] from 1945 to 1949 when the applicant resided at 4711 18th Ave.

[redacted] a reputable physician, minister and [redacted] a reputable Methodist automobile dealer who is also president of the Kenosha City Council, all expressed the opinion that the applicant who has been Police Chief at Kenosha, Wis. since 2/1/48 is a person of outstanding personality, qualification, and ability and a chief who has gained the respect and confidence of the people of Kenosha. They stated that he became chief of police in Kenosha at a time when gambling and bookmaking were very prevalent in the city and that through honesty and hard conscientious work the applicant has been able to stamp out these illicit operations. They stated that he appeared as a witness against certain law-breakers in a recent grand jury investigation in Kenosha, which resulted in the imprisonment of two persons and the fining of several well-known bookmakers, who had operated freely for many years. The above references pointed out that a minority group still opposes the chief because of his honest law-enforcement policy but that by far the majority of the people in Kenosha are behind the applicant and feel that he is the police chief they desire to head their police department. They also stated that the men on the department and that other city and county officials are in favor of and cooperative with the applicant. All references interviewed stated that the applicant is a man of very good character and reputation and that he and his family are very well thought of in the community. These references stated that they were aware of the fact that the applicant had a child born out of wedlock when he was a high school student inasmuch as this fact was noted at a time when he was investigated prior to becoming Chief of Police in Kenosha. They stated that the applicant had made a mistake as a youth and once having made the mistake discharged his obligations growing out of the incident and that the mistake was not indicative of his moral character. All of these references stated that they knew of nothing of a derogatory nature relative to the applicant during the time he has resided in the Kenosha area, which has been since about 1945. They concluded that it was felt at the time that the applicant was hired as Chief of Police that the fact that he had fathered a child when a high school student should not be held against him as being hired as Chief of Police at Kenosha and time has indicated to them that they chose wisely in hiring the applicant as Police Chief. These references stated that the applicant has demonstrated administrative ability and is capable of engaging in executive, administrative, and training activities.

Reference [redacted] is presently on a motor trip, will not be in Kenosha until about 2/1/53 and, therefore, was not available for interview.

b7C

The following reputable citizens of Kenosha were interviewed and each stated that the applicant is a person of very good character and reputation, well qualified to be police chief, has above average ability, and has the necessary qualifications to engage in executive, administrative, and training activities in the Kenosha PD.

[redacted] who also stated that the applicant is in good physical condition and is capable of performing strenuous physical activity.

[redacted]

CLARICE CAYO, Kenosha Credit Bureau, advised that the applicant has a satisfactory credit rating and that his file contains no derogatory information.

The applicant's name does not appear in the arrest files of the Kenosha SO or Kenosha PD.

At Madison, Wisconsin

The applicant's name did not appear in the arrest files of the Madison PD or the Dane County SO in Madison.

The Madison Credit Bureau files did not contain any derogatory information concerning the applicant.

Applicant born June 24, 1913, at Madison, Wisconsin. He graduated from high school there in 1931. He attended the University of Wisconsin intermittently from 1931 to 1937 where he received approximately 3 years college credits. He finally dropped out of the University of Wisconsin because of low grades. He was outstanding football player in high school and was a member of university football squad for the first 2 or 3 years of his attendance there. He was employed as a dairy worker from 1931 to 1938. He then went with the Dane County Sheriff's office where he served from 1938 to 1942. For the next 6 years he was employed as a patrolman with Wisconsin State Patrol. He has been Chief of Police at Kenosha since February 1948. The only derogatory information developed regarding applicant is as follows: In 1932 applicant admitted paternity of a son born on August 26, 1932, to Miss Eleanor Sherman. Miss Sherman was then 18 years of age and applicant was 19 years of age. Applicant paid $276.50 medical expenses and then $10.00 per month for the support of the child until the child reached the age of 16 years. Applicant fully paid all of the obligations required. There is no other information of a derogatory nature regarding applicant and it is noted that the City Authorities of Kenosha who hired applicant in 1948 were aware of this incident which occurred in 1932. Applicant is considered to be an outstanding law enforcement officer and those acquainted with him point out that applicant's mistake when he was a youth has been overcome by proper conduct since he has matured. Miss Sherman married one Harry Olson in January 1937, and applicant married one Helen Landis in March 1935. Bureau files contain nothing unfavorable. Applicant has no physical defects and is capable of strenuous exertion.

Richard H. Custer, City Manager

February 18, 1953

Mr. Stanley G. Haukedahl
Chief of Police
Kenosha, Wisconsin

Dear Chief Haukedahl:

I am happy to learn from your letter of February 5 that the City of Kenosha has been invited to send a representative to participate in the 51st session of the National Academy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, to be held in Washington, D. C. beginning on March 23.

After reviewing the practice of other cities, as well as our own local situation, it appears to me that the City should take advantage of this invitation and that you should be designated to represent our department at the Academy this year.

I understand that the Academy prefers to enroll police officers of the higher ranks, who are in a position to train other fellow-officers in the techniques learned at the Academy, and that at least 12 police chiefs from other Wisconsin cities already have attended the school.

With respect to our own local situation, I note that many of our present ranking officers are ineligible for the Academy because of age, while all of the other present officers are nearer to retirement age than you.

Accordingly, it appears to me to be in the best interests of the Department and the City for you to attend the Academy this year, and you are hereby notified that leave of absence with pay will be granted for you for that purpose. In connection with this leave, I believe it is desirable that there be an understanding on certain aspects of it.

First, if at any time during your absence it is deemed necessary that you return to duty here because of emergency conditions, you will be expected to return upon proper notification from this office.

Second, the city will reimburse you for your actual expenses of travel, lodging, and other expenses incident to your attendance at the school and which you otherwise would not have had, but not more than a total of $1,000.

1-6063-10

C O P Y

2.

Third, inasmuch as a prime objective of this leave will be to better qualify you to train the members of the department, you will be expected, as soon as possible after your return, to institute a training program, based on the Academy curriculum, for the department. The program will be subject to the approval of this office, and may require that the instruction, or part of it, be given by you outside of regular hours.

Fourth, since attendance at the Academy will require you to be away from the city for some time I feel it will be necessary to limit any other absences, for conventions or schools, to a greater degree than normally.

I trust that the above will be satisfactory but that you will not hesitate to call upon me if you have any question concerning this matter. Also, I will appreciate your informing me when all arrangements for your attendance at the Academy are complete.

Very truly yours,

Valuable Training Given In FBI Police School

(Editor's Note—Police Chief Stanley Haukedahl is in Washington, D. C., attending a 12-week session of the FBI National Academy. The following story was written by Harold J. Newton, publisher, The Kenosha Labor, who visited the FBI building several weeks ago. Material used was gathered by him and also taken from "The Story of the National Academy," a booklet issued by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.)

Police chief Haukedahl is one of a class of 79 from 34 states attending the 51st session of the FBI school. He reports that the training is really "rugged" and, a tour of the building with an explanation of the academy program indicates that he wasn't exaggerating one bit.

Very little time is left for sight seeing. When not in class sessions, laboratories, firing ranges, etc., the students are busy poring up on their studies and typing their notes.

Trains Instructors

Purpose of the academy is to train police instructors and administrators in the very latest techniques and thus to help increase the efficiency of law enforcement officials throughout the country.

No better indication of the high regard in which the academy is held can be found than the makeup of the class that Haukedahl is attending.

In it are 13 police chiefs, 17 detectives, 10 police sergeants, 11 po-day through Friday, and there are no classes on Saturdays.

The academy stresses the application of each subject to police work and presents practical problems which the student must solve. Thus instruction is provided in:

Criminal law, criminal identification, education, government, mathematical analysis, personnel procedures, applied psychology, general science, biological science, chemical science, physical science, general social science, sociology, typing, visual education and vocational education.

These academic terms become realities when the student begins to actually work with the subjects.

"Criminal law" is fascinating when the officer begins to probe "fugitive investigations" and "circumstantial evidence," or delve into "evidence and confessions."

"Education," when it deals with "traffic safety education and traffic violators' schools," is of vital interest to the policeman who daily deals with life and death and the automobile.

The subjects under "government, questions of jurisdiction, bank robberies, burglary investigations," and many more, are weapons of great value to officers who wield them with a clear understanding of their worth.

"General and biological sciences" introduce the student officer to laboratory work. "Document identification, codes and secret writing" have their place. With them are additional subjects such as: "blood and other body fluids, hairs and other fibers, document exam-

Touches Entire Nation

Since the academy was founded in 1935, 2,587 law enforcement officials have attended and through them more than 100,000 law enforcement officials of the nation have received training in FBI methods.

The course is patterned after the basic training of FBI special agents. Probing questions uncover new methods in crime detection. Long hours of hard work, intense concentration, gymnasium workouts, firearms practice and meticulous attention to myriad details all contribute to making each graduate an even more efficient and valuable officer.

The understanding generated through a knowledge of each other's needs and objectives has formed the basis for the finest co-

day through Friday, and there are no classes on Saturdays.

With them are additional subjects such as: "blood and other body fluids, hairs and other fibers, document examinations, firearms identification, petrography, spectrography, uses of fluoroscope and allied topics."

"Chemical science" covers "chemistry in crime detection, metals, moulage and plaster casting and explosives."

"Glass fractures, photography, calculation of speed from skid marks" and many other subjects come under "physical science."

Specialized Training

During the last two weeks of the course each student specializes in two one-week courses. Such instruction is given in very small groups.

Among these elective subjects are:

1. Police organization and administration.
2. Laboratory aids to investigation.
3. The use of records in police administration.
4. Fingerprint identification.
5. Investigative methods and techniques.

6. Firearms training.

The student is required to wear civilian clothes while attending class. He must provide himself with work clothes or clothes suitable for use on an outdoor firearms range.

Streamlined Course

The course given the FBI National Academy student is streamlined. Of necessity a tremendous amount of information is imparted in the briefest possible time. Theory is taught by lectures, sound motion pictures, projection machines, slides and reading assignments. But the majority of the work is learned by practical experience.

Police chief Haukedahl reports that Kenosha is one of the few cities in this area that does not have an FBI trained man on its police force. The neighboring cities of Racine and Janesville each have two such personnel.

Upon Haukedahl's return Kenosha will have one on its force.

The understanding generated through a knowledge of each other's needs and objectives has formed the basis for the finest co-operative law enforcement network in the world.

It is also the strongest—local, county, state, federal—yet its ties are the intangible ones of mutual respect, appreciation for the place each holds in the American way of life, and the desire to strengthen that way of life by constantly keeping the full resources of each ready to assist the other.

When an FBI agent finds himself in an isolated community, faced on the spur of the moment with apprehending a dangerous federal fugitive, he may need men desperately. They should be trained men who understand each move in the planned raid.

He will probably need additional firepower. In brief, the FBI needs the other branches of law enforcement just as they need the FBI.

Entrance Requirements

A student must be physically fit, not over 50 years of age, a full time law enforcement officer, with at least two years experience, of unimpeachable character, and possessed of latent ability as a teacher or administrator.

The curriculum of the school is fluid to meet needs of local agencies. Included among the courses are:

- a. Police organization and training.
- b. Scientific and technical matters.
- c. Records, report writing and statistics.
- d. Traffic control.
- e. Firearms training.
- f. Investigations, enforcement and regulatory procedure.
- g. Tests and practical experience.
- h. Police photography.
- i. Physical training and defense techniques.
- j. Organization and operating police schools and training methods.
- k. Public speaking.

Graduate instructors who are conducting their own training schools receive technical assistance from the FBI when requested, as do other police officers.

My dear Mr. Custer:

At the graduation exercises of the Fifty-first Session of the FBI National Academy today, it was my very great pleasure to present to Chief of Police Stanley G. Haukedahl a diploma certifying his successful completion of the course of training.

During the past twelve weeks, Chief Haukedahl was afforded a course of training designed to complement his value as an instructor and to enhance his appreciation of executive law enforcement problems. With these qualifications, I feel that Chief Haukedahl will be able to render increased service to your law enforcement organization.

You may be assured that we were very happy to have your representative with us.

Sincerely yours,

 Chief Haukedahl is about 6 feet in height and weighs approximately 200 pounds. He dresses extremely well and makes a far better than average appearance.

Chief Haukedahl expresses himself unusually well, and was very attentive, industrious, and developed into one of the outstanding members of his class.

He was extremely popular with the other members of the class, has a splendid attitude toward the Bureau and the NA, and seems capable of carrying on the duties of Chief of Police in Kenosha, Wisconsin. In the event the Bureau should consider employing graduates of the NA in the near future, it is suggested that this officer be considered.

FBI NA ASSOCIATES NEWS LETTER

STANLEY G. HAUKEHAHL, Chief of Police, Kenosha, Wisconsin Police Department, addressed the 8th Wisconsin Statewide Police Administrative School jointly sponsored by the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association and the Wisconsin Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriffs Association in cooperation with the Milwaukee Office of the FBI held at Milwaukee on April 26 and April 27, 1954.

The subject was "Physiological Aspects of Intoxication," which included a demonstration of the drunkometer. He also participated in a panel forum on "Intoxication Testing Procedures".

The school drew 253 law enforcement executive and administrative assistants, mayors, and fire and police commissioners which is the largest attendance to date.

Chief HAUKEHAHL's associates in the FBI NA will be glad to learn that he acquitted himself and the NA with distinction.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

This is the final week of a nine-week police recruit training program being conducted in Kenosha. We will now go into a three-week field program with the same recruits, which will conclude our recruit training.

Sergeant [redacted] of our department was coordinator of our school. Both he and I were privileged to attend the F.B.I. National Academy, for which we are grateful. Prior to Sergeant [redacted] attendance, training fell principally upon my shoulders but thanks to our community and the Bureau, it is now possible for us to share this large task of training police personnel.

We wish to thank you for making it possible, through James B. Poster, Special Agent in Charge of the Milwaukee office, to have various agents participate as instructors in our school. Each of them did a splendid job and the fine cooperation left nothing to be desired.

You and your personnel are certainly to be commended for the manner in which you come to the assistance of local police, both in matters of training and crime investigation. At this time, too, we should also like to commend special agents [redacted] and [redacted] assigned to our area, who have rendered us splendid service and cooperation in all police matters, both night and day.

With many thanks and kindest personal regards, I remain

Cordially yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Now that the Golden Anniversary Conference of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police is history, the International Chiefs of Police Honolulu Conference is past, and the Braves have won the World Series, business in our area has returned to normal.

I now have an opportunity to thank you on behalf of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police for making members of your splendid organization available to us during our State Conference. We, of course, would have liked to have had you address our group, but realizing that this was impossible, we are grateful for your sending Mr. C. Lester Trotter, Assistant Director.

We were all extremely impressed by Mr. Trotter, both from the standpoint of his outstanding deliverance of a well-prepared address, and by his exceptionally gracious personality. We are hopeful that we may obtain a copy of his remarks, that they may be published in our annual 'Wisconsin Police Chief'.

We are also grateful for the assistance of Special Agent in Charge, Danny Fultz, Jr., who was extremely helpful, as were Agents under his direction, during the Conference and in its preparation. This was without question our most outstanding conference. All of this is merely another indication of the splendid cooperation enjoyed by us from the Bureau.

With many thanks and kindest regards, I remain,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

On January 11th, I have to speak before the Professional Women's Club of Kenosha, and have been given the subject "Peace In Our Time". This would seem to be a natural topic in which I could discuss crime trends, particularly among youth, and the growing dangers of such youthful unlawfulness in our society.

I have the crime data as contained in Volume # XXVIII, booklet #1, for the first half of this year. However, I would like to obtain information, if it is available, for this same period, which would indicate which percentage of the major crimes in the various categories are committed by youngsters 17 years or less.

If these figures are not available, an estimate would be acceptable, since I would not quote the Uniform Crime Reports of the F.B.I. if they were estimates.

I would appreciate this information at your convenience, prior to my speaking engagement.

With many thanks and every wish for a HAPPY HOLIDAY SEASON, I remain,

REC-117

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL (NA)
Chief of Police
Kenosha, Wisconsin Police Department
FBI NA Associates News Letter

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL (51st Session) recently had occasion to put to profitable use all of his training as a police officer and educator, which he did in admirable fashion.

On December 4, 1958, ART MOLINARO, a local tavern keeper in Kenosha, Wisconsin, who was known on a personal basis to many law enforcement officers in Wisconsin, was shot to death during the course of a robbery of his tavern in Kenosha, Wisconsin. His hands were bound with his necktie and his feet with his belt. He was shot six times and the evidence found consisted of six empty .22 cartridge cases, a partially eaten large T-bone steak and a cup of coffee which was untouched. There was sugar in the coffee, and a spoon left in the cup.

Fine police work by "STAN" and members of his Department resulted in the solution of this case and [redacted] a displaced person from Hungary, was sentenced to up to forty-five years on March 26, 1959, following his guilty plea to third degree murder on March 3, 1959.

b7C

The successful conclusion of this case is directly attributable to painstaking planned investigative work and solid thinking on the part of "STAN" and members of his Department. For example, the spoon in the coffee cup indicated a person of foreign extraction, and MOLINARO's [redacted] recalled a displaced person whom she claimed had been in the tavern several times eating large T-bone steaks. A check of the city for displaced persons turned up [redacted] as one of the suspects.

Quite independent of this phase of the investigation, another suspect and his girl friend were turned up who had spent sometime with [redacted] and the girl in an effort to protect her boy friend, told the police fantastic tales in which she implicated [redacted]. She did not know that [redacted] had committed the murder but was trying to protect her boy friend and the "red herring" that she threw in the path of the police department made the investigation more difficult.

After [] was located in the State of Michigan, there was a serious problem of putting him in the vicinity of the crime at the proper time and this was accomplished by showing his photograph, whereupon he was identified by another tavern keeper in the area and by a cab driver, both of whom placed him in the vicinity at the right time.

b7C

In retracing the murder's escape route, the officers tried to figure a logical place for him to dispose of the murder weapon and surmised that it might have been in a creek over which he would pass. Both the murder weapon and the balance of a box of shells were found as a result of this investigative technique. Ten days in the water had ruined the new gun so that the rifling characteristics were not identifiable, but the FBI Laboratory did make a positive identification based on the markings on the shell casings.

"STAN" says that in many respects, this was the most fantastic case in his knowledge and that if he were a detective story writer, he could "make a million on this one."

My dear Chief:

I have received your letter of October 8, 1959, and certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing me concerning the address of Mr. Tamm at the International Association of Chiefs of Police conference.

It would have been a pleasure to be with you at the conference, and I do regret that I was unable to make an appearance. You may be sure that Mr. Tamm enjoyed being with you, and we are both deeply appreciative of your kind remarks.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

Dear Mr. Hoover:

It was disappointing not to have you personally with us at the I. A. C. P. conference in New York, but we all recognized that your very busy schedule did not permit your appearance. We were grateful however, it was possible for you to assign Quinn Tamm who is endeared to all law enforcement officers.

Mr. Tamm made another outstanding presentation the opening day of the conference and performed in his usual exemplary manner at the N. A. graduates luncheon. I believe the largest number of delegates to hear any address were present to hear Mr. Tamm. This of course is a tribute to you and to him, both having done so much for the betterment of the law enforcement profession.

With many thanks and kindest personal regards, I remain

Information has just been received from Mr. Tamm at the Statler-Hilton Hotel to the effect that the Nominating Committee of the IACP has met and nominated William H. Morris, Superintendent of the Illinois Highway Patrol, for 6th Vice President. He is a graduate of the 52nd Session of the National Academy.

Stanley G. Haukedahl, Chief of Police, Kenosha, Wisc., was nominated for Sergeant-at-Arms. He is a graduate of the 51st Session of the National Academy.

According to Mr. Tamm, these were the only two National Academy graduates among the various candidates.

53rd ANNUAL CONFERENCE

WISCONSIN CHIEFS OF POLICE ASSOCIATION

NATIONAL ACADEMY NEWS LETTER

gm
The 53rd Annual Conference of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association was held in Milwaukee August 29 - 31, 1960. It was a fine program and both the official and extracurricular activities were enjoyed by the 298 members and guests who registered. (5-1)

Jasper A.
As usual there were considerable matters of interest to the National Academy Association with the election of "Jop" Webb (24th Session), Chief of Janesville as President, Orval H. Meister (44th Session), Chief Whitefish Bay, as First Vice-President, "Pete" Krosnicki (21st Session) Chief of Antigo as Third Vice-President and the perennial re-election of Rudolph Exner (26th Session), Chief of Wisconsin Rapids as Secretary.

In addition the members promised their efforts and support to the promotion of "Stan" Haukedahl's bid for Sixth Vice-President of the IACP. Stan (51st Session), Chief at Kenosha is presently Sergeant at Arms of the IACP.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Wednesday, April 20th we again completed an Administrative School in Milwaukee. While such school is sponsored by the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Assoc., the Wisconsin Sheriffs and Deputy Sheriff's Assoc. in conjunction with the FBI, those of us who had been responsible for the planning and preparation, readily understand the leading role of your fine organization. It was again true this year and at which school we believed we had the finest program ever. In addition the attendance on both days was the largest in our history. Everything went off according to plan and Special Agent in Charge, Gearty ran the entire affair in an outstanding manner. The participating Agents also did a fine job. You no doubt will receive an official communication from our Chiefs of Police Assoc., but I am so grateful for your constant and continued leadership in law enforcement training, that I want to add my personal thanks to you and your personnel of the FBI who make it possible for us at the municipal enforcement level to do a better job.

The testimony of the Attorney General before the House Judiciary Committee to the effect that gambling activity and race wire service had existed in Antioch, Illinois, and Kenosha, Wisconsin, is accurate.

The Attorney General cited a race wire service which had been provided in Kenosha, Wisconsin, by Chicago hoodlums and the training of Wisconsin gamblers in Antioch, Illinois, as an example of a situation which would come within the purview of House Bill 6572 in the event it was enacted.

By way of background, House Bill HR 6572 is one of the bills advocated by the Attorney General to combat organized crime. This bill prohibits interstate or foreign travel in support of racketeering enterprises.

Three separate live Bureau informants, who have furnished reliable information in the past, reported the existence of the race wire service in Kenosha, Wisconsin. Numerous informants have verified the existence of gambling operations in Kenosha, Wisconsin. According to our information, Frank Balistreri, Johnny Rizzo, Steve DiSalvo and Buster Balestere were involved in this race wire service with Chicago hoodlums. Information concerning the existence of these gambling operations and indicating possible local violations was disseminated by our Milwaukee Office to the same Chief Haukedahl of Kenosha, Wisconsin, who now labels the Attorney General's testimony as "ridiculous."

Investigation by our Milwaukee Office determined that this race wire service terminated in January, 1961. In providing this information for the Attorney General's testimony, it was clearly indicated that this related to a past operation and he so testified.

In disputing the Attorney General's testimony, Stanley G. Haukedahl, Chief of Police, Kenosha, Wisconsin, is in error. The information utilized by the Attorney General was predicated upon reliable confidential information.

Following the panel discussion, all three men went north to their separate deer hunting camps. Chief WEBB was guest at Rolling Stone Lake, Wisconsin, where PETE KROSNICKI, Chief of Police, Antigo, Wisconsin, Police Department (21st) was host to a group of hunters. Chief WEBB had the only opportunity of the group to bag a buck; unfortunately, JASPER had forgotten to put a shell in the chamber of his gun and watched the buck go "that away" when the hammer fell on the empty chamber. Spare the "ribbing" as JASPER has been the butt of many jokes and remarks.

During Chief WEBB's absence from the department, Captain [redacted] (57th) filled in as acting chief of the Janesville Police Department and while acting in this capacity cleared up several larcenies that had been a source of aggravation to the department.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have just completed the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Conference held in Janesville, Wisconsin, August 28, 29 and 30th, 1961. It was a most successful one, being both fruitful and enjoyable. I am sure you will receive a communication from our secretary and in turn receive a copy of a resolution commending you for your continued assistance in Wisconsin Law Enforcement, but I personally want to add my thanks to you and your personnel for your continued support of good police practices in our State.

We are grateful to you also for making it possible for Assistant Director John F. Malone to appear as a guest speaker. Mr. Malone did an outstanding job and was graciously received by all in attendance. We also appreciate your making it possible for Joseph Kriofske, SAC and other Agents to be present.

The Wisconsin Chiefs have always looked for and received all the necessary help from the Bureau in any matters pertaining to police services. We are all hopeful you will continue in your present capacity as the outstanding Law Enforcement Administrator in the world for many, many years to come.

DATE: 2/28/62

FROM : SAC, Milwaukee (1-211) Attn: Training and Inspection Division

SUBJECT: STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL (NA)
CHIEF OF POLICE
KENOSHA, WIS.

Chief of Police STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL, Kenosha, Wis., has always been prominent in enforcement circles throughout the State of Wisconsin and has been a strong friend and supporter of the FBI. He was recently re-elected to the position of Sergeant-at-arms of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and is generally held in high regard throughout police circles.

I regret to advise, however, that I have just learned that Chief HAUKE DAHL's wife has initiated steps to obtain a separation from the Chief as a result of unsubstantiated rumors concerning HAUKE DAHL's alleged extra-marital affairs. In addition we have heard unconfirmed rumors to the effect that gambling is being allowed to exist in Kenosha and that Chief HAUKE DAHL may be receiving a pay-off from gambling interests in return for permission to operate. The report of SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, JR. dated 2/27/62 at Milwaukee in the case entitled "JOHN CHARLES RIZZO, aka, AR." reports that Confidential Informant [redacted] advised that RIZZO is still gambling in Kenosha and that a "cut" of $500 a month up to a short time ago was paid to the PD in Kenosha. Let me emphasize that this is not substantiated by this office but it would appear that if gambling is actually allowed in Kenosha, it could be stopped if Chief HAUKE DAHL took appropriate action. Referral/Consult

Chief HAUKE DAHL's son recently [redacted]
Chief of Police ORVAL H. MEISTER (NA), Whitefish Bay PD, and together these two men have given strong support to the Milwaukee Office, and both are past presidents of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association.

I am concerned about the unverified rumor regarding Chief HAUKE DAHL and will keep the Bureau advised of any information received which might reflect on the credibility of these rumors. In the meantime the above is submitted for the information of the Bureau. We are cordial with Chief HAUKE DAHL but not close, and I do not recommend at this time that his name be removed from the directory of graduates of the FBI National Academy. If substantiation of these rumors is eventually obtained this will be promptly brought to the attention of the Bureau with an appropriate recommendation.

Haukedahl is a graduate in good standing of the 51st Session, (March - June, 1953), FBI National Academy. We have enjoyed cordial relations and correspondence with him in the past. As recently as October, 1961, the Director congratulated him on his re-election as Sergeant-at-Arms of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, a post he now holds. He is also a past President of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association.

On 2/28/62, Milwaukee advised they learned Haukedahl's wife initiated steps to obtain a separation from him as the result of unsubstantiated rumors of his extra-marital affairs. In addition, there have been unconfirmed rumors that gambling is being allowed to exist in Kenosha and Haukedahl may be receiving pay-offs. In a Milwaukee report dated 2/27/62, in the John Charles Rizzo Anti-Racketeering Case, a criminal informant advised Rizzo is still gambling in Kenosha and that up to a short time ago a $500 a month cut was paid to the Police Department.

Referral/Consult

SAC Kissiah points out the above derogatory information concerning Haukedahl is unverified rumor. Haukedahl's son [redacted] Orval H. Meister, 44th Session, (April - June, 1950), FBI National Academy, the Chief of Police at Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin, and together both of these men have given strong support to the Milwaukee Office. Meister is the current President of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association. Kissiah said the Milwaukee Office is cordial with Haukedahl but not close. He does not recommend we remove him from the National Academy directory. Kissiah said he is following the situation and if substantiation of this is eventually obtained, he will immediately advise the Bureau with an appropriate recommendation.

SAC, MILWAUKEE (1-326)

[redacted]
Captain, Kenosha Police Department
FBI NA Graduate

On 3/15/62, captioned graduate, who was in the 1953 session, was made acting Captain, with the appointment to become effective May 15, 1962, after which he will be in charge of Training, Public Relations and Administrative Assignments for the office of the Chief of Police (STANLEY G. HAUKEBAHL, NA).

It is requested that a timely letter of congratulations be forwarded to Captain [redacted] under the signature of the Director.

It is pointed out that our current investigation activities under new gambling legislation indicate the likelihood that Chief HAUKEBAHL is permitting one or more gambling games to run in Kenosha, in spite of information from various sources as to the existence of these games. There have been allegations that he is being paid off but no proof of this matter has yet been offered or, in fact, substantially detailed.

Nonetheless, Captain [redacted] and his chief are on a very friendly basis with the Milwaukee Office and, in all matters, Captain [redacted] is most cooperative. Chief HAUKEBAHL has been most cooperative in all other matters of mutual interest.

Captain [redacted] originally appointed a patrolman on the Kenosha P.D. 9/10/45, made a sergeant 6/1/51 and a lieutenant 1/1/60.

I plan to send Captain [redacted] a letter of congratulations after the effective date of his promotion, namely May 15, 1962.

Dear Joe:

National Police Week from May 13 - 19, is now history but the fine public relations established as a result of this week of recognition I am sure will be a lasting one. We are of the opinion that this week of recognition should become an annual affair; and judging from the reception in Kenosha, we believe that the public shares this opinion.

We are indeed proud of our participation in this week of recognition and have attached materials indicating what we did to promote the desired police-public relations. We are pleased to report that Captain [REDACTED] NA, was very instrumental in the planning of the entire week.

We feel that our efforts were so complete--and we think outstanding--that we bring them to your attention in hopes that you might find it possible to recognize us in the FBI Newsletter, or in any other way if you deem advisable.

REPORT OF ACTIVITIES FOR NATIONAL POLICE WEEK

MAY 13 - 19, 1962

Sunday, May 13, 1962

A letter was sent to all churches requesting that they ask their parishoners to join with them in prayer for the "men in blue" here and across this great country of ours.

A special showing of the film, F.B.I. STORY, at one of our local theatres. On the opening night of this film our Honorable Mayor, Eugene R. Hammond, and Chief of Police, Stanley G. Haukedahl, spoke to the audience calling upon them to participate to the fullest extent in this, our week of recognition. This program was very well received.

Monday, May 14, 1962

Peace Officers Memorial Day was recognized by conducting Memorial Services at Library Park in the heart of Kenosha. The services were preceded by a short parade with police and sheriff departments represented, city dignitaries, Police and Fire Commissioners, two department chaplains for both faiths, and the Mary D. Bradford High School Band. Many of the people in attendance were most sincere in expressing their feelings that this was a fine gesture on the parts of the police and sheriff departments. Many of them expressed the wish that would become an annual affair.

Tuesday, May 15, 1962

Designated as Police History Day, an appropriate display was set up in the window of the Wisconsin Electric Building located in the downtown area of Kenosha. Many people viewed the display and enjoyed going back to the "old days" of police methods, techniques, and equipment.

Wednesday, May 16, 1962

THE BLUE COAT MASQUERADE, a police variety show, was staged at the Lincoln Jr. High School Auditorium. Approximately 800 people attended the one-evening performance. Twenty-nine police officers and Auxiliary Police officers performed in the show. Requests were made for special showings, for example: St. Catherine's Hospital wanted the show to initiate their new auditorium, and various service organizations were also interested. The proceeds, $500.00, were turned over to the LITTLE LEAGUE PROGRAM. All in all the show was a tremendous success and many of our people have asked that another show be put on next year.

Thursday and Friday, May 17 & 18, 1962

Open House was held on these two days and guided tours were conducted each evening between the hours of 7:00 and 9:00 P.M. After each tour the groups were taken to the squad-room where coffee and donuts were served by our clerical staff. At this time people loosened up, felt more at home, and began to ask questions about the department and it's operations. This tended to create a productive relationship and one which will be remembered by many of those who attended our "Open House."

KENOSHA POLICE DEPARTMENT
REPORT ON NATIONAL POLICE WEEK
May 13th - 19, 1962

Proclamation

Whereas, Today the word Freedom is as important to our history as it was in 1776.

Whereas, The inalienable rights to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness, as guaranteed by the Constitution, to every American citizen, is being challenged on many fronts.

Whereas, Our first line of defense against the enemies of Freedom is our Law Enforcement Agencies.

Whereas, The citizens of our city have been fortunate in having one of the finest police departments in the Nation, protecting their rights, their liberties and their happiness.

Whereas, Understanding is the watchword to compatibility, and it is important that the people of our city know and understand the problems, duties and responsibilities of their police department.

Now, Therefore, I, Eugene R. Hammond, Mayor of the City of Kenosha, do hereby designate the period of May 13 through May 19, 1962, as Police Week, and urge our citizens to take advantage of this opportunity to honor the police officers of our community and to provide a wider base of understanding of their daily work.

Dated this 9th day of May, 1962.

Police Week Observance Planned

By JOSEPH JACOBY
News Staff Writer

Kenosha's will gain an insight into the profession of police officer during the local observance of National Police Week, May 13-19 as tribute is paid the men in blue who risk their lives to preserve law and order.

The local event will be part of an across-the-nation salute to U.S. lawmen with special programs designed to honor policemen killed or disabled in the line of duty.

A high-spirited police variety show, the Bluecoat Masquerade, with the highlights including a seven-member chorus line of Kenosha policemen, is expected to provide a humorous slant to the week-long observance. There are 22 other officers who will cavort behind the variety show, highlights of the Lincoln Junior High School auditorium May 16.

The showing of the movie, "The FBI Story," will mark the opening of National Police Week, Sunday, May 13, at the Roosevelt Theater. The film was made available through the cooperation of William Exton, theater manager.

Police Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl will preface the two showings of the movie with brief remarks to mark the local tribute.

On Monday, May 14, Peace Officer's Memorial Day will begin with special memorial services at Library Park. Police Capt. Ralph V. Fox, training officer, indicated two squads of officers from the police and sheriff's departments will participate in the march.

The Mary D. Bradford High School band will provide the musical background for the short parade which will begin at 58th St. and Sheridan Rd. and terminate at Library Park.

City aldermen, the police and fire commission, county supervisors and Chief Haukedahl and Sheriff Floyd Hughes will join the marchers.

The service will commemorate Police Officer Anthony Pingatore who was killed in a gun battle with burglars he surprised at the American Brass Co. in the early '20's. Honored also will be Deputy James Ralschl who was fatally injured July 3, 1961, while responding to a highway accident. His squad overturned and he was instantly killed.

Both Haukedahl and Hughes will deliver short remarks during the memorial rites followed by scripture readings by Rev. Paul L. Roth of Trinity Lutheran Church and a prayer offering by Rt. Rev. Ralph J. Altstadt of St. Mark Catholic Church.

Mementoes of Kenosha's early police force, including equipment, uniforms, photographs and other relics will be placed on display Tuesday at the Wisconsin Gas & Electric Co. The exhibit is being arranged by Police Lt. Beulah M. Hartwig, Daniel Reed of Barden's, and Fox.

The Bluecoat Masquerade will be staged Wednesday, May 16, at the Lincoln Junior High School auditorium beginning at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are on sale now at police headquarters and can be obtained from officers. Tickets also will be sold at the box office.

To Peace Officers

5-14-62

Words of tribute were spoken at Library Park Monday morning as Kenosha's law enforcement agencies honored Peace Officers' Memorial Day.

The outdoor event marked a portion of the local observance of National Police Week, May 13-19.

Highlight of the week-long programming will be the police variety show, Bluecoat Masquerade, scheduled for presentation at the Lincoln Junior High School auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 16.

Proceeds from the show will be utilized to further the police department's Little League program.

Police Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl, Sheriff Floyd Hughes, police and fire commissioners, aldermen and county supervisors participated in yesterday's special tribute.

A short parade composed of a special police rifle squad and a marching unit from the sheriff's department wound through the Downtown area. It began at 58th St. and Sheridan Rd. and was headed by the Mary D. Bradford High School band and a color guard composed of city auxiliary police officers.

Both Haukedahl and Hughes spoke briefly commemorating officers killed in the line of duty or disabled while in uniform. Scripture readings were given by Rev. Paul L. Roth of Trinity Lutheran Church and the Rt. Rev. Ralph J. Altstadt of St. Mark Catholic Church offered a prayer.

The rites paid tribute to Officer Anthony Pingitore who was killed by three men shortly after they opened the safe at the American Brass Co. after tying up a plant guard. The date was March 31, 1919.

The ceremony also honored the memory of Deputy James Reischl who was fatally injured while responding to a report of a highway accident on July 3, 1961.

The police rifle squad fired three volleys to the east and taps were played by a band member.

Members of the police unit included Officers Bill Powers, Bob Chase, Don Brydges, Bill Goetluck, Wayne Myhre, Henry Tomei, Carroll Schwer, George Pflueger, Bob Husted, Ted Skowronski, Paul Schneider, Bob Hafner and Dick Hansler. Deputies were Dick Tudjan, Bob Tudjan, Bob Wightman, Roger Schoenfeldt, Don Preston, Howard Wolgemuth, Gary Kubart, Bob Hubbard, John Tenuita, Don Kreth, and Bill Carr.

The color guard and color bearers included Stanley Yurges, Chet Himmelein, Charles Hanisch and Boyd Francis of the Civil Defense auxiliary police group.

Besides the sheriff and police chief, Inspector J. Leo Buchmann and Chief Investigator William P. Schmitt and Commissioners Chris Hyslop, Andrew Brookhouse, Ernest Kendall and Jack Beni joined the lawmen in the ceremony. Aldermen present included Gil Dosemagen, John Finley and Mrs. Mary Smith.

MAYOR GETS TICKET — Kenosha's chief executive, Mayor Eugene Hammond, shown above, was "pulled to the curb" the other morning by Officer Frank Stella of the police department and handed a ticket. Instead of the kind that lands a motorist in jail it was a ticket for the Bluecoat Masquerade, a police variety show slated for presentation Wednesday, May 16, at the Lincoln Junior High School auditorium. The three-act program will be staged by police officers and civilian personnel to highlight National Police Week, May 13-19. Tickets are available at police headquarters or any police officer.

Cast Named For Police Masquerade

Cast and crew members for the Bluecoat Masquerade, a variety show being staged by Kenosha police officers in observance of National Police Week next week, was announced today.

The variety show will be held at Lincoln Junior High School auditorium next Wednesday, May 16. Tickets are on sale by officers and will be available at the door.

Capt. Ralph Fox is the production manager for the show written and directed by Dan Reed of Kenosha Little Theatre. Virginia Taylor and Dorothy Bitautis are in charge of costumes; John Erickson, Al Goff and Larry Jorndt are in charge of lighting.

Choreography is by Charlotte Grindler, and the make-up crew consists of Mrs. Harold J. Maurer, Mrs. Sydne Davies, Miss Beulah Hartwig, Mrs. Rita Nelson, Mrs. Viola Chambers, Mrs. Elaine Fox, and Mrs. Jean Thiel. Mrs. Maurer will be the prompter, and Miss Mary Reis is in charge of sound.

In the variety show's cast are Police Chief Stanley G. Hauke-dahl, who will make introductory and closing remarks; Officer Joseph Tyunaitis, Parkettes, Mrs. Laverne Goodwin and Mrs. Betty Soto; Russell Higgins, auxiliary police officers Eldyn Leschinsky and Steve Jacobs, and Officers Wayne Myhre, Joseph Heblor, Robert Ruth, James Gleason; Auxiliary police officers James Kruse and Stanley Yurges, Officers Ralph Fox, Gary Fox, Richard Houtsinger, Robert Petersen, John Levonovich, Al Helgesen, Robert Heroux, Frank Komistra, Robert Husted, Anthony Marr, William Schorn, Carrol Schwer, Dale Schneeberger, Auxiliary police officer Earl Hearn, and Edward Kertz, police radio engineer. Joe Jacoby, News police reporter, is the drama critic.

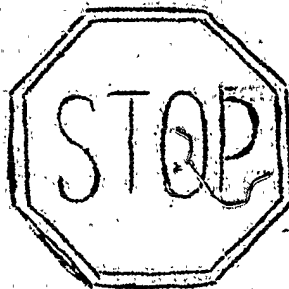

A Peace Officers' Memorial Day parade is scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Monday, May 14, beginning at 58th St. and Sheridan Rd.

A memorial ceremony will be held at Library Park following the parade through the downtown area.

City officials, labor and business representatives, members of the clergy, and police officers, sheriff's officers and police and sheriff's officials will be joined in the parade by the Mary D. Bradford High School Band.

POLICE VARIETY "WINNER"—A kiss and a bouquet were the awards for Police Sgt. William Schorn, the shy but muscular "lass" in the grass skirt, after his performance in the Police Variety show last night at Lincoln Junior High School auditorium. The pretty young miss who bestowed the honors as a "mysterious lady" from the audience is Miss Rosemary Zelipsky. A full house greeted the show.

Police Show Set Tonight 5-16-62

A capacity throng is expected to witness tonight's Blue-coat Masquerade, a variety show being staged by Kenosha policemen.

The production, directed by Dan Reed, a Kenosha Little Theatre veteran, will open at 7:30 at the Lincoln Junior High School Auditorium.

Police and civilian personnel are participating in the hijinks which includes a chorus line of police. Producer of the show is Capt. Ralph V. Fox, department training officer.

Police Variety Show Praised 5-17-62

To the Editor:

"Blue Coat Masquerade," the hilarious homespun comedy produced by the police, was a show no one should have missed. Once again, the wonderful spirit and character of the people in the police department and police auxiliary were demonstrated.

Profits from this extraordinary effort were turned over to the Optimist Club's Little League program. The result—benefits to youngsters in baseball throughout Kenosha. Those watching the show shared a pleasurable experience which can't be given a monetary value.

Countless meritorious performances off stage can be credited to these fine people. A goodly number of these projects have been carried on in cooperation with the Optimist Club. Some of the activities include bicycle safety promotion, bicycle court, rifle clubs, youth code of ethics, Miss Kenosha contest, Little League all-star nights and others. The police department sponsors one of the 18 Little League teams and has provided managers and coaches for over 10 years, including Captain Ralph Fox and Chief Stanley Haukedahl.

We Optimists appreciate what the whole cast and crews put into the show. We believe they worked extra hard because the receipts were going to the Little Leaguers.

We Optimists recognize in police personnel a true "friend of the boy" (our motto) and a person who is a real asset to our community. We feel all citizens of Kenosha should be proud of them and recognize a continuing indebtedness to them.

The Optimist Club would like to express its gratitude and Optimistically believes the citizens of Kenosha share this feeling.

Optimist Club of Kenosha

Police Plan Open House Program 5-17-62

Open house will be held at the Kenosha Police Department from 7 to 9 tonight and tomorrow night.

The event is part of Police Week activities here. Tours of the station will be conducted.

About 600 persons attended last night's police Bluecoat Masquerade, a variety show staged at Lincoln Junior High School, also in observance of Police Week.

Acting Police Capt. Ralph Fox termed the show a "success." He commended several business concerns for their cooperation in furnishing the majority of the props and giving other help.

They are Bode Brothers Furniture Store, Hoffman's Record Shop, Tokeya Sports Shop, the Kenosha News, Radio Station WLP, the Kenosha Public Schools, Sid Miller Costume Shop, Vogue-Chicago Inc., Wisconsin Telephone Co., the Optimist Club, the Kenosha Auxiliary Police and Kenosha Hospital.

SUBJECT: STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL (NA)
CHIEF OF POLICE
KENOSHA, WIS.

On 8/2/62 I attended a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association at Waukesha, Wis., during which a number of topics, including training matters, were discussed. Also discussed was the matter of the desire of Chief of Police STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL (NA) to be elected as the 6th Vice-President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police at the forthcoming convention of that organization in St. Louis, Mo. The Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association is debating giving Chief HAUKE DAHL its full support for this office and is preparing to launch an extensive campaign in furtherance of his candidacy. The chiefs believe they have the active support of the New Jersey and Illinois Chiefs of Police Associations and that Chief HAUKE DAHL has an excellent chance of being elected.

In this connection the Bureau's attention is referred to Milet dated 2/28/62 regarding Chief HAUKE DAHL, his marital difficulties and the unconfirmed information which we have received regarding his possible connections with the gambling element in Kenosha. These rumors persist and I also have learned that Chief HAUKE DAHL is now interested in the insurance business with a view to entering that field if his present position as Chief of Police at Kenosha should become untenable. Chief HAUKE DAHL has been a strong, articulate backer of the Milwaukee Office of the FBI for many years, is a past president of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association and enjoys tremendous support throughout the state as a law enforcement officer. I feel, however, that HAUKE DAHL is not a man of high morals and personal integrity and that he does not deserve support in his quest for this IACP office and various members of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association are doubtful whether they should support him.

For the information of the Bureau, I attended the convention of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Assn. at Eau Claire, Wis. While in attendance it was noted that Chief HAUKE DAHL had his wife with him at this convention and the atmosphere concerning him and his wife was amiable. There appeared to be nothing out of line as indicated in relets.

It has recently come to the attention of the RA, Kenosha, Wis., that [redacted] [redacted] had confidentially informed that Chief HAUKE DAHL has stepped into another controversial area in Kenosha, namely that of selling life insurance while still employed as Chief of Police. [redacted] indicated the situation was aggravated further as the chief visits prospective customers unannounced and advises that the chief is hard pressed financially and that he has been favoring the customer and members of his family for a long time in fixing traffic tickets and that it is time that this person does a favor for the chief. It was indicated by [redacted] that Chief HAUKE DAHL is pressuring prospective customers into securing insurance presently being sold by him. It is rumored that Chief HAUKE DAHL may be selling this insurance for a former SAC, JAMES B. POSTER, who has apparently set up a new insurance agency.

Since the above information has not been verified this office will follow these rumors very closely and should this information be verified the Bureau will be informed promptly so that action can be taken concerning Chief HAUKE DAHL who is a NA graduate and presently acting treasurer of Wis. [redacted] on 1/17/63 confidentially advised SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, JR. that he had ascertained that Chief HAUKE DAHL had obtained his insurance permit from the State of Wisconsin through connections allegedly had by [redacted] of Kenosha [redacted] WISCONSIN WISCONSIN

On 1/28/63 [redacted] confidentially advised that the insurance company that Chief HAUKE DAHL has been selling insurance for is the National Security Life of Wisconsin, 6225 University Ave., Madison, Wis. was incorporated in 1961 and has as one of its main representatives former SAC JAMES B. POSTER, Milwaukee, Wis. [redacted] stated that in recent weeks the Kenosha Board of Life Insurance Representatives lodged a complaint with Mayor EUGENE HAMMOND, City of Kenosha, concerning HAUKE DAHL's activities in this field and information has circulated back that Mayor HAMMOND ordered the chief to "cease and desist" selling any more insurance and stated that if he receives any additional complaints about this practice he is going to bring it to the attention of the Police and Fire Board of the city.

The Bureau has been furnished with newspaper clipping from the Milwaukee Sentinel dated 2/12/63 which is entitled "Bare Chief's Second Job at Kenosha." Since this article has appeared in print HAUKE DAHL has, according to radio and TV stations, informed them that the Sentinel has made it

Haukedahl Conflict Seen

By EARL GOLZ
Sentinel Staff Writer

Kenosha, Wis.—A Kenosha alderman said Wednesday night that he believed Police Chief Stanley Haukedahl could have used the force of his office and prestige to outsell full time insurance agents—but that he had no evidence of this happening. "I felt the chief was in a position of pressure, although I don't know if he ever used it," Ald. Peter Nedweski said in an interview.

He also stated that the chief's insurance license represented a "conflict of interest in my opinion."

"Not a word" had been spoken before the common council about Haukedahl's insurance business until an informal gathering of aldermen two weeks ago, several aldermen said Wednesday night.

Nedweski said he had asked Mayor Eugene Hammond on the night of Jan. 30 whether Haukedahl was in fact selling life insurance policies.

Nedweski said he "believed at least a half dozen other aldermen had never heard" of the chief's insurance activities before that night.

Hammond acknowledged that Haukedahl had a license, but he could not state with any certainty that the chief had sold any insurance, Nedweski said.

"I asked if he would check the number of policies that Haukedahl had sold, but the question was never answered by the mayor in the confusion of several people talking at the same time," Nedweski added.

Other aldermen who said they first heard that Haukedahl had an insurance license, as disclosed at the meeting two weeks ago, are George Fitchett, Mario Capponi and Gilbert Dosemagen.

Jack Beni, a member of the police and fire commission, said Wednesday night that he believed the commission should inquire of the chief if his $10,000 plus salary is sufficient to sustain him without a business on the side.

Beni said he had heard "some talk" that Haukedahl was planning to sell insurance prior to last April when he obtained his license.

Beni said he had never heard other commissioners discuss the fact that the chief had a license, "but I can't say for sure it was never discussed because I've missed several meetings in the last year."

INFORMATION CONCERNING

ReMite1 4/1/63.

SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, JR. on 4/2/63 received information confidentially from [redacted] that [redacted] Mrs. DOROTHY BITAUTIS [redacted] had died of "massive internal hemorrhaging as result of three bullet wounds." He learned that Mrs. HELEN HAUKE DAHL's purse with a gun inside had been taken by the chief nurse from Mrs. HAUKE DAHL who had turned it over to the hospital [redacted] met Chief HAUKE DAHL and Capt. [redacted] (NA) at the hospital and they were enroute to [redacted] office to obtain the gun. [redacted] got sidetracked a few minutes and when he arrived at [redacted] office the other two men were already there. Upon request, [redacted] turned over the purse to [redacted] however, there was no gun inside. [redacted] demanded the weapon and no one said a word for a full minute before Chief HAUKE DAHL advised that Capt. [redacted] had it. [redacted] had the gun in his hand protected from view by his leg and then he swung it up with the cylinder open and said there are no bullets in it. [redacted] demanded to know where the shells were and Capt. [redacted] then reached into his pocket and pulled out six, three of which had been fired.

[redacted] was dumfounded at the action of Capt. [redacted] and Chief HAUKE DAHL as it appeared to be a very clumsy way to hide the important evidence in a case. HAUKE DAHL admitted it was his personal .357 Magnum which he claimed was registered; however, no registration has been found to exist for the gun to date.

 CHIEF OF POLICE
 KENOSHA, WISCONSIN
 FBI NATIONAL ACADEMY GRADUATE

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend that Chief Haukedahl be dropped from the National Academy Mailing List, that no action be taken at this time to remove him from the National Academy Directory, and that SAC, Milwaukee be advised to submit appropriate recommendations concerning his future status at the appropriate time.

Haukedahl is a graduate of the 51st Session(March-June, 1953) of the National Academy. He is Sergeant at Arms of the International Association of Chiefs of Police and Acting Treasurer of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association. His status in law enforcement circles has generally been one of respect until recent months. Unconfirmed rumors were received in March, 1962, that he was having difficulties with his marriage due to extra marital affairs. At that time, it was recommended and approved that he be continued in good standing as a National Academy graduate but would be carefully observed by the SAC and appropriate recommendations would be made if the SAC felt them necessary.

In recent months he has been subject to criticism for selling insurance part time while employed as Chief of Police. There was some indication that he may be pressuring customers of his insurance by virtue of his authority as Chief of Police.

On 4/1/63 Chief Haukedahl's wife shot and killed the female secretary of the Chief, whom the wife claimed was paramour of Chief Haukedahl.

Memo to Mr. Mohr
Re: Stanley G. Haukedahl

By teletype 4/3/63, Milwaukee advised that Haukedahl announced he was taking leave of absence for an indefinite period following the shooting of his secretary by his wife.

OBSERVATIONS:

There is no doubt this man is having his troubles. The fact that he has removed himself from active service in law enforcement makes it obvious that he should be removed from the Mailing List of the FBI National Academy. Since the action is voluntary on his part, it is not felt that he should be placed on record as being not in good standing at this time. Attached for approval is a letter to SAC, Milwaukee advising him that Haukedahl should not be invited to participate in National Academy functions, that he is being removed from the Mailing List, and that the SAC should follow developments and submit appropriate recommendations for consideration of his future status as a National Academy graduate.

For the information of the Bureau, which has been previously advised that Mrs. HELEN HAUKE DAHL, wife of captioned individual, currently is on trial in the Kenosha County Court, Kenosha, Wis. on charge of first degree murder of Mrs. DOROTHY BITAUTIS, alleged paramour of former Chief HAUKE DAHL, resulting out of an April 1, 1961 shooting.

In appearance as witness at 11 a.m. on instant date, Mrs. HAUKE DAHL testified, among other information and testimony given regarding her strained relations with her husband, to the effect that "the beginnings of trouble traced back about six years. They involved his association with an FBI agent, later identified as [redacted] and to a Christmas cocktail party given in DOROTHY BITAUTIS' home, from which HAUKE DAHL returned at 1:45 A.M. instead of the scheduled 8 p.m. Wives were not at this party, which included various officials and off-duty police."

For the added information of the Bureau, former agent [redacted] was assigned as resident agent at Kenosha from approximately [redacted] to [redacted]

Former agent [redacted] was known at Kenosha to be extremely close to former Chief HAUKE DAHL while assigned as resident agent at Kenosha.

New Kenosha Chief Named

J. Leo Buchmann

Kenosha, Wis. — The Kenosha police and fire commission Monday named Acting Police Chief J. Leo Buchmann, 63, to head the police department, replacing Stanley Haukedahl, who had resigned under fire when his wife was charged with murder.

Buchmann, who joined the force in 1921 as a patrolman, had served as acting police chief one other time, in 1948, just before Haukedahl won his appointment.

J. Leo Buchmann, Kenosha's new chief of police.

Haukedahl had tried to regain his job as chief after submitting his resignation, but his application was not accepted.

Sent to Winnebago

Mrs. Helen Haukedahl was found innocent by reason of insanity and sent to Winnebago state hospital in the Apr. 1 slaying of Mrs. Dorothy Bitau, police secretary, whom Mrs. Haukedahl said was "breaking up my home."

Buchmann was selected unanimously after one hour and 15 minutes of deliberation by the commission. Kenosha had been without a police chief since Haukedahl's resignation took effect June 15.

Buchmann was named acting chief Apr. 3 after Haukedahl was given leave of absence on the recommendation of the commission.

Pay Undecided

The new chief is a Kenosha native and one of the oldest members of the force in terms of seniority. Most of his assignments have been in administrative work.

The starting salary for police chief in Kenosha is $9,168. However, Buchmann was receiving $9,444 as an inspector. The commission had not decided what Buchmann's pay would be.

Haukedahl was receiving $11,148 when he was ousted.

Buchmann said that he planned no immediate changes in the department. However, he said he would make changes as the need arose.

The new chief is married and has a daughter.

Buchmann said there would be no administrative changes in the department at present but because of his promotion there would have to be some in the near future. He said he would make recommendations and the police and fire commission would act on them.

As far as any possible action on crime in Kenosha, Buchmann said, "We have had our moral squad at work for the last few months and we feel we have the situation under control."

Re Milwaukee letter to Bureau, 6/11/64.

A total of 63 members of the Wisconsin Chapter and guests attended the above Annual FBI NA In-Service Retraining Session, which is the largest attendance in recent years at such a conference. As the Bureau will recall, Assistant Director JOSEPH J. CASPER of the Training Division addressed the conference and acquitted himself and the Bureau with distinction. All of those in attendance were pleased to learn of the Bureau's projected plans for holding sectional in-service retraining sessions in four areas of the U. S. in the future. The membership unanimously voted to remove the names of former Chief STANLEY G. CHAUKEHAHL of Kenosha, Wisconsin and [redacted] from the membership rolls of NA graduates in "good standing". The membership also selected their site for the 1965 retraining session, namely Grindstone Resort, Hayward, Wisconsin. The dates have not yet been selected but when they are a prompt notification will be given to the Bureau.

[redacted] also addressed the conference at its banquet and did an outstanding job. His address was most informative as well as entertaining. The following officers were elected for the fiscal year 1965-66:

President - [redacted] Captain,
Milwaukee County SO

WALTER E. GABRIEL, Chief; Burlington,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As you probably know I am no longer in the police field, but am the Agency Coordinator for 20th Century Guardian Life Insurance Company of Battle Creek, Michigan. We are the 18th Life Company ever incorporated within the state. Have completed our stock sale and now are on the road with our program. However, one does not spend 25 years in the police field without leaving a part of him there. I dearly love it and must admit I miss it.

You will recall while I was Chief of Police in Kenosha, Wisconsin, I wrote to you several times commending you for your outstanding leadership in the field of law enforcement. Also, I expressed appreciation for assistance rendered by you and your agents to local law enforcement. I want to further assure you Mr. Hoover, though you need no further assurance, that you are, and have been, the most outstanding leader of law enforcement throughout the world. This studied opinion is shared by all of sound mind who are without prejudice or seeking political power. I have often said, and will continue to say, that without your presence at the helm of the F.B.I. little Bobbie Kennedy would most certainly have initiated a national police force to enhance his own power. Countless millions of us are forever grateful that you have the courage to speak your convictions which are right and always have been, and that you speak the truth without fear or favor. Such leadership I fear is lacking in our time, and that too much thought is given to political expediency.

Many of us have feared that you might soon go into justifiable retirement, but please do not do so until the good Lord forces you to do so. The world needs your leadership in your present capacity. God Bless you and keep you, and every wish for a happy holiday season, I remain

Very truly yours,

his testimony, but to support such a move it would be absolutely necessary to have the cooperation of the FBI in presenting the information from the FBI files in State Court to show the dates when and the nature of the information that was, in fact, disseminated to HAUKE DAHL; and, whether he was ever requested to hold off any action on his part for the benefit of investigations being conducted by the FBI.

For the information of the Bureau, review of the Milwaukee Office files reflects that for the pertinent period of 1959 through 1961, when gambling was conducted most actively in Kenosha, the dissemination memoranda in existence then has since largely been destroyed. A memorandum for the file, dated 5/25/61, summarizing some earlier contacts had with HAUKE DAHL for purpose of dissemination of information relating to gambling in Kenosha, as prepared by SA WILLIAM J. HIGGINS, JR., reflects specific contacts being made with HAUKE DAHL on dates of January 23, February 1, March 15, and April 12, all 1961.

These specific contacts dealt with the craps gambling site located at 2207 - 56th Street, Kenosha, run by BILL "WEISER" COVELLI and JOHN RIZZO, the latter of whom was known to be tied in with the FRANK BALISTRERI mob of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and that two members of this mob, namely "BUSTER" BALISTRERE and STEVE DI SALVO of Milwaukee, have been frequenting these games regularly. HAUKE DAHL was also informed of the success the then Sheriff of Kenosha County had in closing a gambling site in the County in February, 1961, by stationing deputies at the entranceway to harrass both gamblers and clientele.

On 5/10/61, HAUKE DAHL informed SA HIGGINS that he had talked with SAM GEROLMO, landlord of the building where COVELLI and RIZZO were operating at 2207 - 56th Street, Kenosha, in regards to canceling of their lease, but GEROLMO refused to do so after being told by both RIZZO and COVELLI, that the game was strictly local, quite small in operation, and denying BALISTRERI of Milwaukee had any "piece" of it. HAUKE DAHL, at this time, was specifically told that both COVELLI and RIZZO's statements were not true as BALISTRERI not only had a piece of that "craps game," but that RIZZO also operated a horse-book for larger than $10.00 bets which he "laid-off" with the BALISTRERIS.

Inasmuch as the various Agents in Charge of the Milwaukee Office, at the times that these events transpired are no longer available; and, in addition, such testimony would tend to reveal administrative procedures of the Bureau in a matter of substantially lesser charge, of false swearing, to that of actual corruption while in office as Chief of Police, it is being recommended that the Bureau should not become involved in this situation as it relates to HAUKE DAHL.

In this connection, it is to be further noted that HAUKE DAHL was fired as Chief over two years ago; he was publically repudiated and disgraced; and, now resides in Michigan where he is in private business and not connected with law enforcement. The press in coverage of any prosecution of HAUKE DAHL, not involving a substantive charge of corruption while in office, could well interpret the charge of false swearing as a minor item to the possible embarrassment of the Bureau.

Accordingly, any formal request on the part of the Wisconsin State Attorney General's Office for Bureau personnel and production of official records for use in testimony in State Court of the prosecution of HAUKE DAHL on charge of false swearing will be declined, (UACB)

Re: Stanley G. Haukedahl

Dear Mr. Williams:

I am sure that even though your tenure in Wisconsin is short you have heard of the above individual, who is the former Chief of Police at Kenosha, Wisconsin, a National Academy graduate, and presently in the insurance business in Battle Creek, Michigan.

During the past year and a half this office has been engaged in an investigation of alleged corruption and organized crime activity in Kenosha. The principal tool of the investigation has been a "John Doe proceeding" which ended April 30, 1965. Since that time we have been attempting to complete several investigations of individuals by filling in the gaps that appear necessary to a successful prosecution in the several cases. To date warrants have been issued against eleven individuals, and several of these have been bound over for trial. We anticipate that there will be several other warrants issued in the next few weeks. It is possible that one of these will be for Haukedahl.

For your general information this investigation revealed a sorry picture of law enforcement in the City of Kenosha under Haukedahl's administration. He has testified under oath in secret proceedings. We are firmly convinced that he has lied on many material matters concerning enforcement of the laws during his administration. In particular, it seems obvious that he permitted gambling operations, knowing full well that they were commercial and connected with organized criminal elements. It is our belief that he, as much as any one person, has been responsible for the bad situation in Kenosha. We firmly believe that if the evidence can be put together he should be prosecuted. The areas in which he can possibly be prosecuted lie, as I have indicated above, in perjury and misconduct in office. The perjury which we believe he has committed is in [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] Misconduct lies in his failure to enforce these laws, having knowledge of the continuing violations.

As you know, I am a retired Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and at the time of my retirement had been assigned to the Milwaukee office for many years. I recall the Bureau's policy of dissemination of information, and also recall that the situation in Kenosha under the administration of Haukedahl was of some concern to the Bureau. It is my recollection that there was considerable information coming to the attention of the F.B.I. during this period which was disseminated to Haukedahl in one manner or another. The period of which I speak would be approximately 1959 through June of 1963. The records of the Kenosha Police Department are so inadequate that it has been impossible to determine therefrom just how much information was disseminated to Chief Haukedahl. As a matter of fact, our agents in searching the records of the Kenosha Police Department came across but one letter from the F.B.I., and this was from Special Agent in Charge Joseph Kissiah dated May 23, 1962, wherein Haukedahl was advised of the existence of several gambling operations then existing in Kenosha, according to information then available to the F.B.I.

It would be of great aid to our investigation if we could learn what information the F.B.I. actually disseminated to Haukedahl in this regard. I am aware of the Bureau's policy in these matters and realize that such a request presents problems. I would like to propose that myself or another agent of this division be furnished the information which the F.B.I. disseminated to Chief Haukedahl between and including the years 1959 and 1963. In the event that such information proves sufficient to proceed with prosecution of Haukedahl, a further request would be made of the F.B.I. for the proper testimony in regard to the information needed on trial. I can assure you that unless a subsequent decision to prosecute was made, the Bureau's cooperation with this division in this matter would be held in the strictest confidence. My reason for making our request in this manner is that until we know what the information is, the prosecutor will not be able to make a final decision as to whether a formal request for testimony should be made.

November 19, 1965

Our method of proceeding in this matter is that cases arising out of our investigation in Kenosha are being prosecuted by a Special Assistant Attorney General appointed for the purpose. His name is [redacted] a former Assistant District Attorney in Milwaukee County, and a judge-elect to the Milwaukee County bench. [redacted] will take office on January 1, 1966, and will therefore be unable to further serve in this capacity. His work will be continued and completed by [redacted] a Milwaukee attorney who at one time was an Assistant District Attorney of Milwaukee County. Incidentally, [redacted] is a [redacted] of Special Agent Martin L. Croak. These men are reliable men and men of good judgment, and I would not advise you that the matter could be kept in strict confidence under the conditions outlined if I did not believe this true.

b7C

Prior to his departure on transfer [redacted] had discussed this problem in general terms with Special Agent [redacted] (N.A.) of this office and a final decision had not been made and it was anticipated S. A. [redacted] and probably myself would have a meeting with [redacted] for a detailed discussion of the problem. This, of course, did not come about. As the matter is becoming more urgent daily, we would like very much to have a decision on it in the near future. We would like to meet with you in order to do this at any time and place most convenient to you.

b6
b7C

Please rest assured of our complete cooperation in this and all other matters of mutual interest.

Sincerely,

Clark E. Lovrien

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL
FORMER CHIEF OF POLICE
CITY OF KENOSHA, WISCONSIN

The files of the Milwaukee office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation contain the following references to information furnished to Stanley G. Haukedahl, former Chief of Police, City of Kenosha, Wisconsin.

On December 2, 1960, [redacted] Chief Investigator, Sheriff's office, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, when contacted advised a Special Agent of the FBI that the "56th Street Cigar Store," 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin, was a well-known center for members of the local Italian gamblers to loiter, gamble at cards, and "craps" and "lay off" horse race bets by telephone with Waukegan and Chicago, Illinois, gambling interests. [redacted] also stated he had heard through his contacts that a Steve De Salvo and "Buster" Balistreri, together with John Rizzo, hung out at the joint also and were supposed to be members of the Frank Balistreri mob of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b7C

On December 30, 1960, [redacted] Sam Gerolmo, of the building at 2207-56th Street, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that the room at that address was rented out at $65 a month to a group of Italian-Americans, headed by Louis Greco of Greco's Restaurant, and was used on weekends and sometimes on more frequent occasions for "craps" games, but that no horse bets or card games have been conducted there for over a year. A photograph of John Charles Rizzo was identified by [redacted] as one seen frequenting the "craps" games held at that location and also seen in the company of a number of men, all allegedly of Milwaukee, including one "Buster" Balistreri.

b6
b7C

ENCLOSURE 45

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL

On January 23, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl, Police Department, City of Kenosha, Wisconsin, was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI and advised of the gambling operations being conducted at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, involving "craps" games by John Rizzo, who was allegedly tied in with the Frank Peter Balistrieri mob at Milwaukee. The question was raised with Chief Haukedahl as to whether race wire service was coming into the City of Kenosha and that in the past information was had that race wire service was coming into the gambling joint at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, for the west-end mob, probably from Waukegan, Illinois, and such service was also being furnished separately to Mr. Z's Tavern, 502-58th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin, run by Peter J. Zocchi.

Chief Haukedahl on this occasion advised he had been informed by one of his men in December, 1959 that horse bets were alleged to be taken by a [redacted] at George's Bar, 2219-63rd Street, and that gambling was also allegedly occurring at Andy's Restaurant, the Rite-Spot and the Young Men's Athletic Club, all in Kenosha, and that he accordingly had the Special Agents' Research Corporation, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, conduct an undercover investigation of gambling at Kenosha in January and February of 1960 to cover these locations. The conclusion reached by this organization was that betting and gambling were not observed on various dates of surveillances conducted in January and February of 1960 and may have been suspended or curtailed and that a horse race betting parlor may operate in town but not at the spots checked, which did not include the YMAC at 616-57th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin.

b7C

On January 27, 1961, a confidential informant advised that John Rizzo operates a "craps" game with a $500 pot limit at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, on Friday and Sunday nights and is accompanied by "Buster" Balestrere and Steve De Salvo of Milwaukee, and that Bill "Weiser" Covelli of Kenosha, was the only local Kenosha man having a percentage of the game with 10 per cent. Informant also said Rizzo was the only man in Kenosha who will handle any sizeable horse race bets, with "lay offs" made to the Balistrieris in Milwaukee and that there were no known race wire connections existing in Kenosha. [redacted]

b7D

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL

[REDACTED]

Informant added that there are some petty horse bets made in Kenosha by the local gamblers for amounts between $2 and $5 on which there is little chance to suffer much loss and that "Ditchy" Greco of Kenosha, takes a great deal of this trade.

b7D

On January 27, 1961, records of the Wisconsin Telephone Company, Kenosha, were checked by [REDACTED] service representative, who advised that all telephone service at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, was disconnected and removed on January 27, 1961, and that no service of any type was located there.

b6
b7C

On February 1, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl, Police Department, Kenosha, was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI and furnished with the information that John Rizzo's "craps" game was being run on Friday and Sunday nights with a $500 pot limit. That "Buster" Balestrere and Steve De Salvo of Milwaukee have been seen frequenting these games and that all information received appeared to substantiate the allegation that Frank Peter Balistrieri has an interest in the operation of gambling at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha. Chief Haukedahl was also advised that there is no telephone service at this site as of January 27, 1961, but that Rizzo was identified as the only man in Kenosha taking sizeable horse race bets of more than $5 and that other information exists he is in contact with Frank Peter Balistrieri on numerous occasions and was known as the "money man" or "banker" in Milwaukee circles.

On February 15, 1961, Sheriff Floyd Hughs and Chief Investigator [REDACTED] Sheriff's Office, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, were contacted by an Agent of the FBI and they advised that they learned that on the weekend of February 11, 1961, Frank "Ditchy" Greco had moved his well-known gambling operation from the YMAC, 618 - 57th Street, Kenosha, to the rear of "Red" Leonard's Tavern, highway 32 south, near the Wisconsin-Illinois state line for gambling purposes and that the Sheriff's office was detailing squad cars to stay at this site all hours of its operation in order to harass and close it down from the start and to continue to do so until it was closed.

b7C

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL

On February 20, 1961, the Kenosha Evening News, a daily Kenosha, Wisconsin newspaper, printed a release announcing an armed holdup by four masked gunmen. had allegedly occurred Saturday night, February 18, 1961, of a "craps" game held at the Rite-Spot, 1213-55th Street, Kenosha, which netted a loss of at least $4,500 from approximately 15 persons and that the City Police of Kenosha were investigating the story.

On February 20, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI and advised at this time of the report that "Ditchy" Greco had moved from the YMAC location in Kenosha to the rear of "Red" Leonard's Tavern, near the state line and highway 32. Chief Haukedahl was further told of what the plans were of the Sheriff's Office to attempt to force its closing. Chief Haukedahl confirmed the holdup at the Rite-Spot and stated that Captain [redacted] was heading the investigation, but that no official complaints had been received by the department as to this violation from any of the victims.

On March 4, 1961, a confidential informant advised a Special Agent of the FBI that Frank Peter Balistrieri is backing John Rizzo in his gambling at Kenosha and that "Buster" Balestrere and Steve De Salvo make trips to Kenosha on weekends to see that Balistrieri gets his "cut" and that Rizzo is running a "craps" games with a $500 limit and also takes horse bets and has some arrangement with the Kenosha City Police being allowed to run the game a certain number of hours two days a week, and that Rizzo no longer has a horse line running into his place.

On March 11, 1961, a confidential informant advised the local Kenosha gamblers were convinced that the Balistrieris "fingered" the Rite-Spot holdup of the "craps" game on February 18, 1961, because of its opposition to the "craps" game being run by John Rizzo at 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin, and that a full-scale investigation was under way by the City Police, making any gambling in Kenosha too "hot" to operate on a very wide basis.

On March 15, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI and again was advised of the fact all information points to John Rizzo running the "craps" game for the Balistrieris at Milwaukee, who are allegedly "backing" this gambling with a "cut" indicated to the Balistrieris and that horse race bets are also being taken by Rizzo and are openly conducting this gambling on Friday and Sunday nights and were at least doing it without fear on a regular basis. Chief Haukedahl was also advised that the tactics of the Sheriff's office at Kenosha of detailing a squad to openly cover the gambling spot of "Ditchy" Greco at "Red" Leonard's Tavern on highway 32 near the state line, had practically forced Greco to shut down that operation.

In addition, Chief Haukedahl was advised that it was believed in some gambling circles in Kenosha that the Balistrieris had "fingered" the holdup of the Rite-Spot Tavern "craps" game. operated on the second floor above the tavern of [redacted] to force the game out of business because of its competition with Rizzo.

b6
b7C

Chief Haukedahl stated he had complete trust in his men and did not believe stationing a man at the door of this joint was logical.

On April 12, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI and advised John Rizzo's "craps" game was again operating on Friday and Sunday nights and that Rizzo was taking sizeable horse race bets of over $10 which "lay offs" were made on with the Balistrieris. That "Buster" Balistrere and Steve De Salvo still attended the "craps" games from Milwaukee and that the only local gambler having any interest in the game was "Weiser" Covelli. Further that the only other known "books" in town were those of [redacted] and [redacted] at Art & Buff's Barber Shop and [redacted] at Frank's Diner, both being small. "Old Homestead" in Illinois on U. S. 41 was also operated with everything going, including "craps," gambling and "book" operations.

b6
b7C

Chief Haukedahl was also advised that there was information existing that Rizzo was working hand in glove with Frank Peter Balistrieri of Milwaukee as to the gambling operation at

STANLEY G. HAUKEDAHL

2207-56th Street, Kenosha, that "Buster" Balistreri and Steve De Salvo regularly visited Rizzo's game, possibly to supervise it as Frank Balistrieri's money is allegedly "backing" up that gambling.

On April 18, 1961, Chief Deputy [redacted] Sheriff's office, Racine, Wisconsin, advised John Rizzo's home at 1906 Emmertson Road, Racine, had been forced into by an unknown male, wearing a stocking over his head as a disguise, at 3:30 AM, April 15, 1961. The unknown individual stayed with Mrs. Rizzo until the arrival of John Rizzo at about 4:30 AM by automobile, at which time he held the latter up at gunpoint and on not finding any "craps" game money, took Rizzo's car, which was later recovered by Rizzo abandoned in the City of Oak Creek, Wisconsin, toward Milwaukee on highway 38 the same date.

b7C

On April 20, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl was contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI for the purpose of furnishing the details of the holdup of John Rizzo at the latter's home early on April 15, 1961, the intent of which apparently was to obtain the receipts of that evenings "craps" game, which Rizzo did not have with him, and further that Rizzo had indicated to the Racine Sheriff's office by their report that he ran a "craps" game in Kenosha on Friday and Sunday nights. Chief Haukedahl was also advised that information was obtained that [redacted] had reopened at the Rite-Spot upstair location for "craps" games, also that additional background on Rizzo had been developed at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, that in March, 1957, Rizzo had an interest in a plush gambling house in Milwaukee and was known as an associate of Frank Peter Balistrieri there.

b6
b7C

On May 10, 1961, Chief Stanley G. Haukedahl, when contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI, advised he had talked to Sam Gerolmo, 22nd Avenue and 56th Street, Kenosha, regarding canceling of his lease with Bill "Weiser" Covelli and John Rizzo at 2207-56th Street, but that Gerolmo refused to do so after being reassured by Covelli and Rizzo that their gambling activities at that location were strictly of a "local" nature and considered a small operation, with less than $1,000 invested by Rizzo and that both denied that Frank Balistrieri of Milwaukee had any interest or "piece" in that operation. Chief Haukedahl was advised that available information pointed to the fact that Covelli's and Rizzo's statements were not true and that the Balistrieris did have a "piece" of that gambling operation and that Rizzo, in addition to operating "craps" was also operating a "book" for larger than $10 bets, which he "laid off" with the Balistrieris.

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL

STANLEY G. HAUKE DAHL
FORMER CHIEF OF POLICE
CITY OF KENOSHA, WISCONSIN

The files of the Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation contain the following information identifiable with Stanley G. Haukedahl, former Chief of Police, City of Kenosha, Wisconsin:

On December 2, 1960 [redacted] Chief Investigator, Sheriff's Office, Kenosha County, Wisconsin, when contacted advised a Special Agent of the FBI that the "56th Street Cigar Store", 2207-56th Street, Kenosha, Wisconsin, was a well-known center for members of the local Italian gamblers to loiter, gamble at cards, and "craps" and "lay off" horse race bets by telephone with Waukegan and Chicago, Illinois gambling interests. [redacted] also stated he had heard through his contacts that a Steve De Salvo and "Buster" Balestrere, together with John Rizzo, hung out at the joint also and were supposed to be members of the Frank Balistrieri mob of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

b6
b7C

Frank Peter Balistrieri is the boss of the La Cosa Nostra family of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Steve De Salvo, Buster Balestrere, and John Rizzo are known area hoodlums.

On December 30, 1960 [redacted] Sam Gerolmo, of the building at 2207-56th Street, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that the room at that address was rented out at $65 a month to a group of Italian-Americans, headed by Louis Greco of Greco's Restaurant, and was used on weekends and sometimes on more frequent occasions for "craps" games, but that no horse bets or card games have been conducted there for over a year. A photograph of John Charles Rizzo was identified by [redacted] as one seen frequenting the "craps" games held at that location and also seen in the company of a number of men, all allegedly of Milwaukee, including one "Buster" Balestrere.

information uncovered thus far pointed to the fact that Covelli and Rizzo's statements were not true and that Balistrieri did have a "piece" of that gambling operation and that Rizzo, in addition to operating "craps", was also operating a "book" for larger than $10 bets, which he "laid off" with the Balistrieris.

On May 10, 1961 Chief Investigator [redacted] Sheriff's Office, Kenosha County, when contacted by a Special Agent of the FBI advised Frank "Ditchy" Greco's place at "Red" Leonard's Tavern, highway 32 and state line, Kenosha County, was closed tight and has been closed for some time. [redacted] was also advised of information, although it did not pertain to information in Kenosha County, Wisconsin, that the "Old Homestead" Tavern, in Illinois off U.S. 41, was indicated as operating on a "wide-open" basis for all forms of gambling possible by gamblers from Antioch, Illinois.

and Milwaukee telephone call to Bureau 2/10/66.

The letterhead memorandum enclosed with Milwaukee airtel to Bureau 2/6/66 contains all information identifiable in Milwaukee Office files with information disseminated to STANLEY G. HAUKEDAHL, former Chief of Police, City of Kenosha, Wisconsin that relates to gambling.

A file review was made in the Milwaukee Office which included the general dissemination as well as the Kenosha, Wisconsin Police Department file.

There is additional information in Milwaukee files that pertain to information disseminated to former Chief HAUKEDAHL relating to other than gambling matters, for example 26 and 88 and other routine type cases on which he may have been contacted in the past.

Even though the information contained in letterhead memorandum appears to be confined to a certain period of time in 1961, this is occasioned by the fact this is the period of time when gambling type information was disseminated to HAUKEDAHL.

The Special Agent in Charge also pointed out that Haukedahl no longer resided in Wisconsin but now lives in Michigan where he is engaged in private business and is no longer connected with law enforcement. The Special Agent in Charge felt that to disclose information from our files might possibly embroil the Bureau in an embarrassing controversy on a minor phase of any over-all question of corruption on the part of Haukedahl and recommended that any formal request for FBI testimony or records be denied.

In view of the Department's request for information about this matter, it is suggested that Milwaukee be instructed to provide a summary of information previously disseminated to Chief Haukedahl. This will be reviewed before being furnished to the Department and when transmitted, we will advise the Department of the undesirability of permitting review of Bureau files or furnishing of testimony in any proposed local prosecution of Haukedahl.

RECOMMENDATION

Attached for approval is an appropriate airtel to the Milwaukee Office instructing it to submit a summary from available records of gambling information furnished to Haukedahl while he was Chief of Police, together with the current Special Agent in Charge's views as to whether this material should be disseminated to the office of the Attorney General of Wisconsin.

Department referred to Bureau ^{The} request from Attorney General of Wisconsin for review of FBI files as to gambling information furnished by Bureau to Haukedahl, former Chief of Police, Kenosha, Wisconsin, in connection with possible forthcoming state prosecution of Haukedahl on charges of perjury and misconduct in office. Department requested summary of information furnished to Haukedahl.

Milwaukee instructed to submit appropriate letterhead memorandum summarizing gambling information previously furnished to Haukedahl and furnish recommendations as to review of FBI files and Agent testimony in this matter. (Haukedahl is National Academy graduate no longer retained in good standing.)

The summary has been received and reviewed and indicates that Milwaukee furnished information to Haukedahl on five occasions between January and April, 1961*, concerning gambling, including the operation of horse race books in Kenosha. Haukedahl was also given information received from informants and other sources that gambling activities of the leading Kenosha gambler, John Rizzo, were tied in with the Frank Peter Balistrieri mob in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. The information in the Milwaukee summary has been properly paraphrased to protect Bureau confidential informants and sources.

The Special Agent in Charge concurs with previous recommendations made by the Milwaukee office that no review

Attorney [redacted] of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, has recently contacted our Milwaukee office and advised that he is under contract with the present Governor of Wisconsin to pursue any criminal or civil actions arising as the result of a state inquiry into organized crime in Wisconsin from 1963 to 1965.

[redacted] advised that consideration is being given to prosecuting former Chief of Police Haukedahl, Kenosha, Wisconsin, for perjury and misconduct in office and that he is aware that the Wisconsin Attorney General has previously received a letter from the Department of Justice declining to make available information from FBI files concerning data furnished to former Chief of Police Haukedahl by our Milwaukee office relative to gambling matters in Kenosha.

[redacted] has indicated that he was not attempting to circumvent the Department's declination but indicated the possibility exists that he might obtain the needed information through the testimony of former Special Agents William J. This is to advise that [redacted] a Milwaukee attorney, who is under contract with the Governor's office of Wisconsin to pursue criminal or civil actions arising from a Wisconsin probe of organized crime during 1963-1965 has renewed a former request for information from Bureau files and testimony of Agents in a contemplated prosecution of former Kenosha Chief of Police Stanley G. Haukedahl on charges of perjury and misconduct in office.

BACKGROUND

Haukedahl, a graduate of the 51st Session (March June, 1953) of the National Academy, but no longer retained in good standing, was Chief of Police of Kenosha, Wisconsin, from 1959 to 1963. He resigned this position June 15, 1963, following a series of events, including the sentencing of his son on a charge of grand theft; the killing, by his wife of the Chief's secretary, who the wife claimed was having an affair with the Chief and local criticism of Haukedahl to the effect that he was selling insurance part time while still acting as Chief of Police and using his position to pressure customers. Haukedahl no longer resides in Wisconsin, but now lives in Michigan, where he is engaged in private business, not connected with law enforcement.

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: Dissemination Contacts with Former Chief
of Police Stanley G. Haukedahl

A representative of the Wisconsin Attorney General's office made a request to our Milwaukee Office in 1965 for information from FBI files concerning gambling information furnished to Haukedahl in contemplation of possible prosecution of Haukedahl for perjury and misconduct in office. This was not furnished and the Special Agent in Charge advised the Bureau he recommended against giving such information to local authorities pointing out that to disclose this type of material might possibly embroil the Bureau in an embarrassing controversy on a minor phase of any over-all question raised by the Wisconsin Attorney General as to corruption on the part of Haukedahl while he was Chief.

Referral/Consult

advised of the Bureau's view as to the undesirability of permitting an examination of FBI files in this contemplated local prosecution.

CURRENT REQUEST BY ATTORNEY

Attorney contacted the Milwaukee Office on March 9, 1966, and advised the Wisconsin Attorney General had received a letter from the Department of Justice which in effect denied the Wisconsin Attorney General's request for information from FBI files. said he still desired to proceed with prosecution of Haukedahl but said the perjury angle appeared weak and he would probably attempt prosecution against Haukedahl for misconduct in office.

b6
b7C

Memorandum to Mr. DeLoach
Re: Dissemination Contacts with Former Chief
of Police Stanley G. Haukedahl

[] said he had no desire to circumvent the Department's declination but felt that he might get the needed information through testimony of former Special Agents William J. Higgins (entered on duty June 2, 1941, retired January 4, 1966) and John A. Holtzman (entered on duty August 1, 1939, retired August 11, 1965). He indicated he also felt that the 1962 letter of the former Special Agent in Charge to Haukedahl referred to above should be made available in the prosecution. [] said he desired to get the prosecution underway within the next six weeks and would like a determination as to whether the testimony and the letter would be furnished. He was advised that the matter would be referred to headquarters and the Department for a decision.

b6
b7C

With reference to this further request, the Special Agent in Charge again recommends against furnishing testimony or the letter or other information from FBI files for the same reason previously given, which is that this would inject the Bureau into a controversial situation on a minor phase of the main question as to corruption on the part of Haukedahl while he was Chief at Kenosha.

No information in Bureau files identifiable with []

b6
b7C

RECOMMENDATION:

[] request is basically the same as the previous requests from Wisconsin authorities. Inasmuch as the Department is conversant with this situation and the issues involved concern legal questions as to testimony and the confidential nature of Bureau files, it is recommended this current request be referred to the Department for its opinion. We have previously advised the Department of the undesirability of furnishing Agent testimony or information from Bureau files in this contemplated local prosecution and this is being again brought to the Department's attention.

Attached for approval is a letter to the Department together with appropriate background information requesting its views in this matter, including 1962 Kissiah letter to Haukedahl.

SAC, Milwaukee, JOSEPH L. KISSIAH.

Attorney [redacted] came to the Milwaukee myself his contemplated prosecution of HAUKE DAHL. He advised that the Wisconsin Attorney General had received a letter from the Department of Justice, exact wording of which he does not recall but which in effect denied the Wisconsin Attorney General's request for information from FBI files concerning data furnished to former Chief of Police HAUKE DAHL.

He stated he was not attempting to circumvent the Department's refusal by his present request but felt the possibility exists that needed information might be obtained through testimony of former SAS WILLIAM J. HIGGINS and JOHN A. HOLTZMAN, which might serve generally the same purpose in a contemplated

He stated he desired the prosecution if it appears feasible to get under way within the next six weeks and would like to get a determination as to whether testimony of these former agents might be precluded by Departmental regulations. The general restrictions which are placed on Attorney [redacted] also stated that in regard to the 1962 letter of then Milwaukee SAC KISSIAH to HAUKE DAHL, he felt that despite the Department's declination to furnish the previously requested information from FBI files, that letter should be made available since it was written to a law enforcement official outside the Bureau and could, of course, have been produced or utilized in a proceeding by HAUKE DAHL if the letter were available.

These comments by Attorney [redacted] are brought to the Bureau's attention inasmuch as it would appear that despite what action HAUKE DAHL might have taken concerning the KISSIAH letter, this would have no effect as regards a subpoena by a State official for an FBI record, namely the file copy of the KISSIAH letter.

With respect to Attorney [] inquiry concerning availability of SAS HIGGINS and HOLTZMAN for testimony and the availability of the 1962 Kissiah letter for production in the State proceedings, it is felt the reasons set forth in Milwaukee letter dated 10/7/65 as to why information in this matter should not be furnished to the State apply equally well to the testimony desired by the State in this matter. It is, therefore, recommended that the Bureau's position be against making such testimony and record available under subpoena.

In specific regard to the testimony of former agents, it is suggested the Bureau may desire to discuss this matter with the Department as to whether or not Departmental regulations would actually preclude such testimony under State subpoena. No contact has been made or is contemplated with former SAS HIGGINS and HOLTZMAN concerning this matter. However, Attorney [] did indicate that if he contacted either of these individuals in the near future, he would remind them of the possible restriction of their testimony by Departmental regulations. He further advised that he might present the matter in a manner requiring a final determination by subpoenaing former SA HOLTZMAN for a hearing before the magistrate in Kenosha in a proceeding to obtain a warrant for the arrest of HAUKE DAHL on perjury or misconduct charges, which action could be taken under Wisconsin law, as it might serve to resolve the matter at an early date rather than run the risk of not being able to obtain their testimony because of possible Departmental preclusions at the time of a later trial. He added that he would advise the Milwaukee Office a day or so prior to issuance of any such subpoena and would also advise the Milwaukee office, should subpoena of the Kissiah letter through SAC, Milwaukee appear necessary at a later date.

The Milwaukee Office contemplates taking no further action in regard to this matter, pending a reply from the

STANLEY G. HAUKEDAHL, Former Chief of Police
City of Kenosha, Wisconsin

Reference is made to the memorandum of February 6, 1966, captioned as above.

On March 9, 1966, [redacted] Attorney at Law, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, appeared at the Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] advised that he is under contract with the present Governor of the State of Wisconsin, Warren P. Knowles, to pursue in court in any criminal or civil actions that have or may arise as a result of a John Doe investigation into organized crime made by the office of the Attorney General of the State of Wisconsin, in the City of Kenosha, during 1963 - 1965.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that in this connection, he is seriously considering prosecuting former Chief of Police Stanley G. Haukedahl for perjury and/or misconduct in office. He stated that at this time he is very doubtful that he has enough facts to warrant prosecution of Mr.
Haukedahl on perjury charges and as a result will more than likely proceed against him on the charge of misconduct in office if it appears prosecution could be sustained.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that in secret testimony given before the John Doe Hearing in Kenosha, Wisconsin, as set out above. [redacted]

[redacted] further stated that

b6

b7D

[redacted] stated that this conversation was reportedly held in Kenosha, shortly after the then Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy had made a press release stating that crime of the organized variety was running rampant in the City of Kenosha, Wisconsin. [redacted] stated that at this time he is seriously considering subpoenas and would like to bring Chief Haukedahl to trial at an early date and would like to have his case fully prepared for trial within the next six weeks. He stated he is considering issuing a subpoena to Mr. John A. Holtzman, whom he knows to be living presently in the City of Peoria, Illinois. [redacted] further stated that he is not sure whether the testimony of former agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation would be precluded by some order of the U. S. Department of Justice. He stated that he realized that the information obtained by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation while on official duty with the Bureau may ordinarily not be divulged where he acquired it in an official capacity. He stated, however, that if former Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation did not testify in the contemplated case against Mr. Haukedahl, information concerning the conversations between the former Special Agents and Mr. Haukedahl would be brought to light by other witnesses as well as by Mr. Haukedahl. He stated he felt testimony on the above points should not be precluded since the matters were brought out already in a State hearing.

[] stated that he would be most anxious to determine whether it would be proper for him to prepare his case relying on the testimony that he would expect be available to him through Mr. Holtzman and/or Mr. Higgins.

b6
b7C

It should be noted that the numerous conversations reportedly held between William J. Higgins, Jr., and Chief Haukedahl have been previously set forth in the memorandum of February 6, 1966.

A review of files of the Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation failed to disclose any information identifiable with the reported conversations had in the year 1962 between Mr. Haukedahl and former Special Agent John A. Holtzman concerning Gurera and Balestrere and gambling matters.

It is further noted that the files of the Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation contain two newspaper clippings concerning statements made by Attorney General Robert Kennedy concerning organized crime with reference to organized crime in Kenosha, Wisconsin, as appearing in the Milwaukee Sentinel Milwaukee, Wisconsin, March 20, 1963, and the Milwaukee Journal on the same date, both newspapers being published daily in the City of Milwaukee.

The Milwaukee Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation files further did not disclose any such conversation during the year 1963.

[] further stated that if it appeared necessary to subpoena the 1962 letter to Mr. Haukedahl from then Milwaukee Special Agent in Charge, Joseph L. Kissiah, he would direct same to the present Special Agent in Charge at Milwaukee.

Re: Gambling Activities in
Kenosha, Wisconsin

Dear Chief:

I wish to thank you for your several letters, which pointed out that your department has been instructed to be alert for possible violations of the new Federal Anti Gambling statutes under the investigative jurisdiction of the FBI. I will in deed appreciate having any possible violations brought to my attention and SA William J. Higgins so that appropriate investigation can be conducted. You may rest assured that this office will reciprocate by furnishing you information concerning local gambling matters in Kenosha when such activity comes to our attention. The following information, which was received from an anonymous source, may be of interest to you at this time:

I wish to point out that the information is not verified and this office does not vouch for its authenticity, however, its being furnished to you for such assistance as you may find it to be.

It is said that bets can be placed at George's Bar, 2319 63rd Street; Johnny's Barber Shop at 57th Street and 23rd Avenue; also that there can be bets placed at Kathy's Restaurant, 1406 63rd Street. It appears that bets are phoned in from these spots - perhaps to some bookie whose identity is not presently known to this office - and the bettors pay their losses and pick up their winnings at these locations. According to our source, the bets are taken by the proprietors of the afore mentioned business places rather than by an employee or other person.

It is also alleged that [redacted] who lives across from [redacted] operates poker and crap games in his home on a commission, that is, he cuts the pot and runs the games for the profit derived therefrom. You may find that [redacted] has been the subject of a gambling complaint made to your department last fall by [redacted]

It is also alleged that a commercial poker game operates on AMC paydays above Don's Bar, 2231 63rd Street. This game is allegedly operated by [redacted]

It is also alleged that Pete's Bar, 24th Avenue and 63rd Street, is the scene of considerable gambling at poker and [redacted] operates coin machines for gambling purposes. According to our anonymous source, [redacted] of Dante's Bar, 31st Avenue and 52nd Street, is engaged in commercial gambling. He allegedly maintains a large apartment above the bar, access to which is had from 31st Avenue. There he operates poker games which may begin as early as Thursday night and run through Sunday night, weekly. It is said there are usually two tables devoted to poker. One is a game with a $2 limit and the other a $5 and $10 game. [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] is said to be a dealer at the above place. [redacted] allegedly furnishes food and drinks for the players and caters to AMC employees, who apparently get their pay checks each Friday.

In the event any further information is received regarding the persons and places mentioned above, you will be informed. If you develop any information concerning the alleged booking activities, referred to above, I would appreciate knowing the facts, as the situation may bear looking into in the line of the Federal Anti Gambling Statutes under which we now have jurisdiction. Bookies need information on betting orders and race results and are prone to making interstate phone calls in the course of their business. As you know, these may constitute violations of the Federal law.

I hope that the above may be of some assistance to you.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH L. KISSIAH
